Conservatives Forming Party In State: Huber

LANSING (AP) — State Sen. Robert Huber of Troy reported today papers had been filed to form the Conservative party of Michigan.

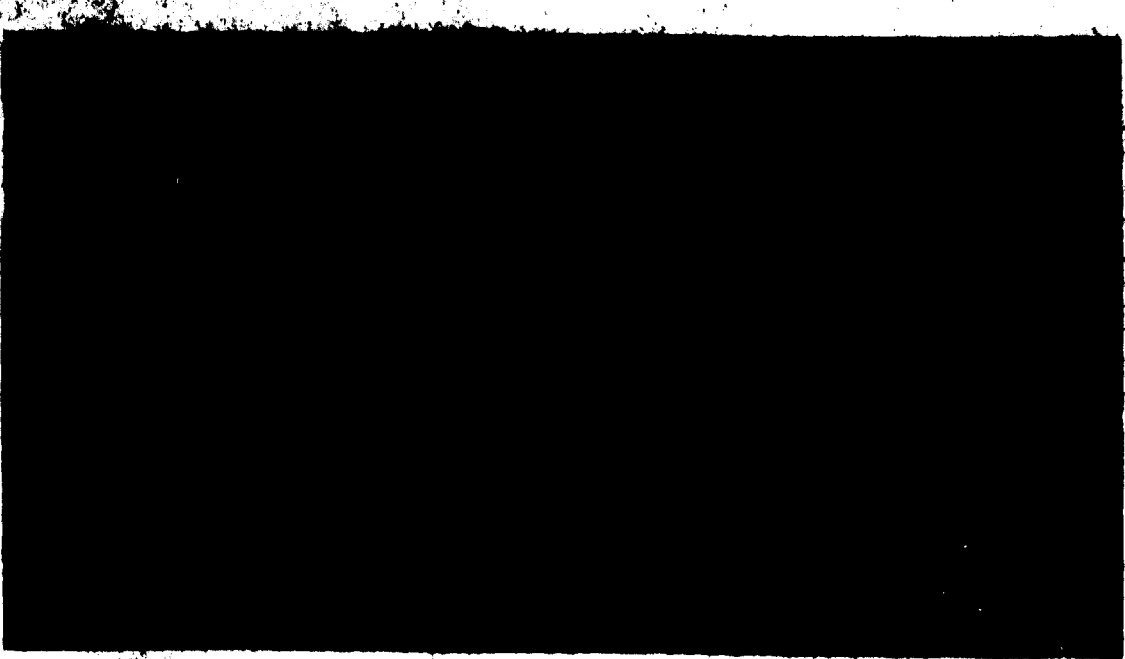

Huber, conservative who narrowly lost the GOP U.S. Senate nomination to Lenore Romney in the Aug. 4 primary election, said there was "no party" yet, and no plans to put candidates on the November ballot.

"We're just anticipating," Huber said. "I've known for six years there was no place in the Republican party for a conservative."

Huber said he did not believe he would attend the GOP state convention this weekend in Detroit. "Time is very valuable and I don't waste it," he said.

Huber was involved in a meeting earlier this month with a group of some 60 dissidents at New Buffalo. The group, calling itself the United Conservative Party of Michigan, decided to withhold its support from top GOP candidates, at least for the time being.

Gov. William Milliken said earlier this week he did not consider the group "representative of the Republican party of Michigan."

Plan Would Call For 'Observers'

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — High administration officials say the United States would seriously consider agreeing to have U.S. and Soviet units join in a peacekeeping force for the Middle East.

The administration spokesmen say they have in mind a physical presence of the two powers, perhaps as an observer force, under a United Nations umbrella.

Concept Outlined

The concept was outlined to 46 newspaper and broadcast executives from 15 Western states Monday. Release of the information was withheld for 48 hours. Ground rules of the session forbade direct quotation and identification of the sources.

The officials said Israel, in particular, wants on-the-ground security arrangements for assurance it is agreeing to a real, not a paper peace. They said U.N. involvement would not mean more recourse to the Security Council, which the United States considers loaded against Israel.

Strategy Plan Set

Administration strategy for the Middle East is being built around the possibility that the United States and the Soviet Union may be embarked on a peacekeeping, the spokesmen said, and that both powers will have to agree to any settlement terms.

Whether the two would have to become involved in practical details of peacekeeping activities is still an open question, they said, but the United States never has precluded such an assignment and apparently does not intend to do so now.

White Cemetery Rites Set For Negro Soldier

MIAMI (AP) — A federal judge today ordered an all-white cemetery to bury a black soldier who was killed in Vietnam and whose funeral was being held in Miami.

Attorneys for the family of the soldier, who was killed in action in Vietnam, said they were participating during a day called as "Women's Rights Day" in New York.

Sentencing Set For Coed Slayer

ANN ARBOR (AP) — John Collins, convicted of killing a coed, was sentenced today to 15 years in prison.

Collins was convicted of killing Karen Sue Beierman, an 18-year-old EMU freshman from Grand Rapids. The girl was last seen alive July 25, 1969. Her nude and battered body was found three days later.

Collins was convicted Aug. 19 — nearly five full days after the six men and six women on the circuit court jury received the case.

Worst War Incident 32 Americans Feared Dead In Copter Crash

SAIGON (AP) — Thirty-two Americans were believed dead today in one of the worst helicopter crashes of the Vietnam war, but the U.S. Command announced that American battlefield casualties last week dropped to their lowest level in 4 1/2 years.

The weekly casualty report said 25 Americans were killed in action last week and another 200 were wounded. A spokesman said it was the lowest casualty total since the week ending March 5, 1969, when 61 Americans were killed and 177 wounded.

The big U.S. Army helicopter was hit by an enemy rocket grenade as it was coming in for a landing at Fire Base Judy, in the northern part of the country. It was transporting troops being withdrawn from Kham Duc, a base 15 miles east of the Laotian border which allied forces abandoned Wednesday.

The chopper crashed just outside the artillery base, spraying wreckage in several directions. A rotor blade hurtled into the base, killing two soldiers stationed there and wounding five others.

There were 25 Americans aboard the twin-engine transport, and only the copilot and one passenger, an infantryman, were rescued. Both were injured. Late today no word have been received on recovery of missing bodies.

In the worst helicopter crash of the war, 41 Americans were killed on Jan. 6, 1969, when a CH-53 troop carrier crashed into a mountain. On May 7, 1969, two Americans and 20 South Vietnamese troops were killed when a CH-53 hit a tree while taking off near Khe Sanh.

Women 'Kick Up Their Heels' In Bid For National Equality

By The Associated Press

Women activists around the country, marking the 50th anniversary of their winning the vote, have begun a new drive for equality. They marched in the streets, chanted at rallies and held symbolic demonstrations.

High point of Wednesday's "Women's Strike for Equality" was a mass march down New York's Fifth Avenue that drew a police-estimated crowd of more than 20,000 persons, including some men. Parade officials put the figure as high as 60,000.

Major demonstrations were held in Washington, Boston, Chicago, Indianapolis and San Francisco but there was also activity in cities the size of Missoula, Mont., and Pahrump, N.J.

Betty Friedan, founder of the National Organization for Women—NOW—and originator of the idea for the strike, said the scope of the activity was "beyond our wildest dreams."

Major goals of the demonstration were equal job opportunities and pay, free abortions and 24-hour child care centers. Women were urged to stay home from their jobs and not perform menial household tasks.

Little Abolitionism

Business communities reported little abolitionism, however, and the largest crowds were for these events timed for the lunch hour or after work.

The New York parade drew thousands of homebound office workers as spectators—most of them friendly. Others stared or sneered or shouted disapproval.

The mood was generally jovial but with serious overtones. "It's both serious and fun, but not something to be made fun of," commented one woman marcher. "There is a feeling of unity among us."

At a rally following the march Mrs. Friedan declared: "This is not a bedroom war, this is a political movement. Men is not the enemy, men is a fellow victim."

Kate Millett, acknowledged chief theoretician of the women's liberation movement and author of "Sexual Politics," said, "Today is the beginning of a new movement. Today is the end of millennium of oppression."

South Korean Aid Bid 'Unrealistic,' Sec. Laird Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird says the $3 billion in military aid sought by the South Koreans from the United States over the next five years is unrealistic.

Laird said this amount of assistance—more than four times the present level—isn't feasible "considering the attitudes in the Congress" for reducing defense spending and foreign aid.

The defense secretary made the comment during a news conference Wednesday.

More Campus Unrest Predicted

NEW YORK (AP) — Campus unrest will continue during the coming school year, with its intensity depending on the political and social climate at home and U.S. involvement abroad, a group of campus heads predicts.

Ten campus heads were asked by the Ladies Home Journal whether they believed the institutions would "cool down" or whether protest actions would continue to disturb the traditional routine.

The replies printed in the magazine's September issue included the presidents of the University of Notre Dame, City University of New York, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, University of California at Berkeley, San Francisco State and Southern University.

Agnew Tells GIs Withdrawal Set

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in Vietnam today for his second visit of the year and declared that the because of the Cambodian "crisis" has moved that U.S. troop withdrawals will proceed as planned.

"We will go forward with the Agnew administration's policy of withdrawing U.S. troops from South Vietnam," he said. "The present situation calls for U.S. troops to remain in South Vietnam to help the South Vietnamese fight the war."

Agnew said he would be in Vietnam for 10 days, including the progress of the war in South Vietnam and neighboring Cambodia. They last met when Agnew was here at the beginning of the year.

Agnew was maintaining a fast pace on his current Asian visit, with 48 hours in South Korea, 24 in Nationalist China and now 24 or less in South Vietnam. He goes to Thailand today, and although he said again today he would not visit Cambodia, officials in Phnom Penh were saying plans for him to stop there for lunch on route to Bangkok.

In his comments to newsmen during the flight from Formosa, the vice president said the Vietnam policy announced by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and an opponent of U.S. participation in the war, is "very, very wrong and dangerously wrong" and is being exploited by the Mao government.

The convention called Agnew II to see whether he would endorse a resolution on Wednesday when he attacked "a few opportunists who may wish to see us bogged down."

"I would not see any members of the Senate as being opportunistic," Agnew replied, then added:

"I think there is a great diversity of opinion as to what we should be doing in Southeast Asia, and I find myself in violent disagreement with people such as Sen. Fulbright."

"I don't impugn his motives and I don't think he is a less patriotic for expressing his conviction, but I think he is very, very wrong and dangerously wrong and that since he is, in my opinion, in a position where he must be disagreed with, and on very firm terms ..."

"I find a great deal on the part of the North Vietnamese in their English-language newspapers to exploit statements by Sen. Fulbright, (George S. McGovern, and people who are consistently talking against our involvement there and raising questions of propriety of the existing South Vietnamese government."

South Koreans Refute Agnew 'Double Talk'

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean government today disagreed with much of what U.S. Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said publicly about his lengthy talks with President Chung Il Kwon Park Monday and Tuesday.

Agnew told American newsmen traveling with him that he and Park had "reached a basic accord," and the vice president also said there would be no change in U.S. plans to withdraw 20,000 of the 45,000 American troops in Korea by next June 30. But International Wirephoto said Agnew told a news conference:

"We have never expected to the withdrawal of 20,000 U.S. troops from Korea. There is no change at all in our basic position that the modernization of our armed forces must precede any U.S. troop cut-back in Korea."

Agnew also reported that he told Park when the "long-range" modernization program was completed, perhaps in five years, perhaps later, the United States hoped American troops would no longer be necessary in Korea. He said Park "accepts that and I think he accepts it as desirable."

State comment: "We understand that this statement ... was a general explanation of the principle of the Nixon Doctrine on the assumption of a situation when our self-defense capability becomes intact."

But this said there was no discussion of the complete withdrawal of American troops from Korea. He said Park told Agnew that he did not want U.S. troops to stay in Korea forever but felt they would be needed until South Korea can bear its defense responsibilities alone. Park added that it will be quite some time before that happens, this said.

'Amendment To End War' Presented To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a last-minute effort to gain votes, Senate critics of White House Vietnam policy have offered President Nixon new flexibility under their "amendment to end the war."

Their inclusion of a 60-day period in which the President could suspend the total withdrawal of troops from Vietnam came as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird declared U.S. air power will be used in Cambodia as long as it results in reducing U.S. casualties in South Vietnam.

Under the amendment, the President would have to report to Congress the number of troops withdrawn and the number of U.S. casualties in South Vietnam.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., announced the new version of the amendment he is sponsoring with Sen. Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., would keep the President out of his announced goal of reducing troop levels in Vietnam to 200,000 men by April 30, 1971.

Withdrawal Date Set

The amendment still calls for the orderly end of military operations in Indochina and "the safe and systematic withdrawal of remaining forces by Dec. 31, 1971."

But the new version would allow the President to suspend adverse effects on the environment—and to approve more spending for the CS transport, already burned by a 60 billion cost overrun.

12,000 Thailand Troops May Quit S. Vietnam Zone

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Thailand has told the Saigon government it wants to withdraw "as many as possible" of its 12,000 troops in South Vietnam, Premier Thanom Kittakorn told newsmen today.

The premier said the situation in Thailand and neighboring Laos and Cambodia is becoming more tense, and Thailand wants its "battle-tested" troops to protect its frontiers.

Thanom said his government has not yet fixed a date or number of troops for the pullout. He said this would be discussed with Vietnamese officials.

Thanom, who also is defense minister, said he would ask the United States to increase aid to Thailand as more U.S. troops are pulled out of his country. About 6,000 were withdrawn during the past year.

Nixon, Key Aides In Budget Confab

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon called in key Cabinet members and budget officials today for a meeting of the Domestic Council and invited them all to stay for evening at the theater in Los Angeles.

Nixon is reviewing policies on the home front, including the fight against inflation and sharing of federal revenues with state and local governments.

George Shultz, director of the Office of Management and Budget, among those attending today's meeting, said news Wednesday of a decline in the government's wholesale price index was a "fairly dramatic" sign that the administration's program to control inflation was taking hold.

Plan Would Call For 'Observers'

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — High administration officials say the United States would seriously consider agreeing to have U.S. and Soviet units join in a peacekeeping force for the Middle East.

The administration spokesmen say they have in mind a physical presence of the two powers, perhaps as an observer force, under a United Nations umbrella.

Concept Outlined
The concept was outlined to 48 newspaper and broadcast executives from 13 Western states Monday. Release of the information was withheld for 48 hours. Ground rules of the session forbid direct quotation and identification of the sources.

The officials said Israel, in particular, wants on-the-ground security arrangements for assurance it is agreeing to a real, not a paper peace. They said U.N. involvement would not mean mere recourse to the Security Council, which the United States considers loaded against Israel.

Strategy Plan Set
Administration strategy for the Middle East is being built around the possibility that the United States and the Soviet Union may be enmeshed there indefinitely in on-the-scene peacekeeping, the briefers said, and that both powers will have to agree to any settlement terms.

Whether the two would have to become involved in practical details of peacekeeping activities is still an open question, they said, but the United States never has precluded such an assignment and apparently does not intend to do so now.

Third Briefing
The briefing was the third in a series of five that will cover all regions of the country. In large measure it was repetitive of one earlier in the month at New Orleans for the South.

On other points, the briefers said: —Vice President Spiro T. Agnew is underscoring the "Nixon Doctrine" on his current Asian trip, promising support but encouraging Asian nations to help themselves.

—As a result of the Cambodian sanctuary operations, the chances of survival of the current Lon Nol government in Cambodia are better than 50-50, compared to about one in four before that move.

Arms Limitation Talk
—The strategic arms limitation talks, viewed with continued cautious optimism, are considered to be the best arms control negotiations the United States has ever engaged in with the Soviet Union. And, the Russians are described as taking a more sober approach than ever before.

—On dissent in the United States over Vietnam policy, the administration was described as conscious of the concern of some of the country's most dedicated people. But one of the briefing officials commented that the people do not forgive leaders if they produce disasters—even if these disasters carry out the wishes of the people.

White Cemetery Rites Set For Negro Soldier
MIAMI (AP) — A federal judge today ordered an all-white cemetery to bury a black soldier who was killed in Vietnam and refused interment because of his race.

Attorneys for the family of Spec. 4 Pondexter E. Williams said he would be buried Saturday at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens in Fort Pierce with full military honors.

U.S. Dist. Judge William O. Mehrrens heard arguments from attorneys from both sides in his chambers, with reporters excluded, then announced in the court the issuance of a temporary injunction blocking the cemetery from prohibiting Williams' burial any longer.

Lawyers explained the "temporary" part of the injunction was a technicality and the order to bury Williams is final.

Since his military funeral last Sunday in the National Guard Armory at Fort Pierce, 125 miles north of here, Williams' body has lain in a flag-draped coffin, awaiting the outcome of the court suit. Friends stood a vigil over the casket while the case progressed.

The suit was joined by family attorneys, the U.S. Justice Department, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the American Civil Liberties Union.

The suit was brought against the cemetery because of a contract clause which says, "No bodies except those of persons of the white or Caucasian race may be interred in said lots."

Agnew Tells GIs Withdrawal Set

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in Vietnam today for his second visit of the year and declared that the success of the Cambodian venture has insured that U.S. troop withdrawals will proceed as planned.

"We will go forward with it," Agnew told newsmen accompanying him on the flight across the South China Sea from Formosa. The present program calls for U.S. forces in Vietnam to be reduced to 284,000 men by next April.

The vice president spent most of the afternoon in conference with South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, reviewing the progress of the war in South Vietnam and neighboring Cambodia. They last met when Agnew was here at the beginning of the year.

Agnew was maintaining a fast pace on his current Asian visit, with 48 hours in South Korea, 24 in Nationalist China and now 24 or less in South Vietnam. He goes to Thailand Friday, and although he said again today he would not visit Cambodia, officials in Phnom Penh were making plans for him to stop there for lunch en route to Bangkok.

In his remarks to newsmen during the flight from Formosa, the vice president said the Vietnam policy advocated by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and an opponent of U.S. participation in the war, is "very, very wrong and dangerously wrong" and is being exploited by the Hanoi government.

The newsmen asked Agnew if he was referring to antiwar senators on Wednesday when he attacked "a few opportunists who may wish to see us bug out."

"I would not cite any members of the Senate as being opportunists," Agnew replied, then added:

"I think there is a great diversity of opinion as to what we should be doing in Southeast Asia, and I find myself in violent disagreement with people such as Sen. Fulbright."

"I don't impugn his motives and I don't think he is less patriotic for expressing his convictions, but I think he is very, very wrong and dangerously wrong and that since he is, he, in my opinion, is in a position where he must be disagreed with and on very firm terms."

"I find a great desire on the part of the North Vietnamese in their English-language newspapers to exploit statements by Sens. Fulbright, (George S.) McGovern, and people who are consistently talking against our involvement there and raising inferences of impropriety of the existing South Vietnam government."

"We have never consented to the withdrawal of 20,000 U.S. troops from Korea. There is no change at all in our basic position that the modernization of our armed forces must precede any U.S. troop cut-back in Korea."

Agnew also reported that he told Park when the "long-range" modernization program was completed, perhaps in five years, perhaps later, the United States hoped American troops would no longer be necessary in Korea. He said Park "accepts that and I think he accepts it as desirable."

Shin commented: "We understand that this statement... was a general explanation of the principle of the Nixon Doctrine on the assumption of a situation when our self-defense capability becomes intact."

'Amendment To End War' Presented To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a last-minute effort to gain votes, Senate critics of White House Vietnam policy have offered President Nixon new flexibility under their "amendment to end the war."

Their inclusion of a 60-day period in which the President could suspend the total withdrawal of troops from Vietnam came as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird declared U.S. air power will be used in Cambodia as long as it results in reducing U.S. casualties in South Vietnam.

Third Rewriting
As the stop-the-war amendment underwent its third rewriting the Senate voted, in effect, to allow continued use of herbicides in Vietnam—despite any adverse effects on the environment—and to approve more spending for the C5 transport, already burned by a $2 billion cost overrun.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., announced the new version of the amendment he is sponsoring with Sen. Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., would lock the President into his announced goal of reducing troop levels in Vietnam to 280,000 men by April 30, 1971.

Withdrawal Date Set
The amendment still calls for the orderly end of military operations in Indochina and "the safe and systematic withdrawal of remaining forces by Dec. 31, 1971."

But the new version would allow the President to suspend that deadline for up to 60 days, without the consent of Congress, "upon a finding American troops were subjected to clear and present danger."

Backs Destruction Plan
McGovern said if additional time were needed, the President could submit a revised timetable and other recommendations to Congress for approval within 10 days after his first action.

Meanwhile, Laird told newsmen: "If we can destroy enemy troops and supplies with the minimum casualty rate, I'm for it and I will authorize it."

He agreed with Vice President Spiro T. Agnew that the United States will do all it can to help the Lon Nol regime governing Cambodia.

School Board Approves Reduced Millage Levy

By MIKE UTT
Tax levies were certified Wednesday night by the Escanaba Area Board of Education and, as the board promised before the annual school election on June 8, it only approved as much millage as was needed.

The board certified tax levies of 21.1 mills for operating expenses and 3.234 mills for debt, making the total school levy 24.334 mills for 1970.

Of this levy, the operating expenses included 8.6 mills that were allocated by the Delta County Tax Allocation Board and 15.1 was extra voted millage. The debts include .985 mills for Cornell, 2.977 mills for the 1960 debt and 1.983 mills for the 1966 debt.

12.6 Mills Asked
The millage issue placed on the ballot of this year's school election asked for approval of up to 12.6 mills for two years for operational purposes.

The board stressed the terminology "up to 12.6 mills" because of the uncertainty as to the amount of state support for schools this year. The board promised that if there was a sufficient increase in state funds, it would only levy as much less than the 12.6 mill request as possible.

The final state aid bill gave the Escanaba Area Public School District more money than it expected to receive and therefore, the Board of Education is only going to levy 12.1

mills instead of the 12.6 mills that it had asked.

12.1 MILL Total
The 12.1 mills gives the board a total of 15.1 extra voted millage. Another 3.0 mills was voted in 1968.

The 15.1 mills also assures the Escanaba Area Public Schools of state aid for the coming year, as the present state law requires that for the 1970-71 school year, a school district must levy at least 12 mills for operation in order to receive state aid funds.

In other business items on the agenda of Wednesday night's meeting, the board accepted the bid of the Escanaba Dairy, in the amount of six cents per half pint, to supply milk for the 1970-71 school year. Cloverland Creamery also submitted a bid of six cents per half pint, but since it has supplied milk to the district for the past two years through the Steward Sandwich Co., the bid of the Escanaba Dairy was accepted.

Calendar Approved
The 1970-71 school calendar was approved by the board. The calendar includes the following schedule: Aug. 31, first day of classes; Nov. 24-30, Thanksgiving vacation; Dec. 18-Jan. 4, Christmas vacation; April 8-14, Easter vacation; May 31, Memorial Day Holiday; June 4, last day of school.

Contracts were approved for Dr. James R. Ryan, superintendent of schools; Lillian Brooks, assistant high school librarian; Dorothy Ripley, sixth grade teacher at Ford River; Rebecca Elmhurst, special reading; Joanne Banks, special reading; and Jean Seymour, school nurse.

The board also released Mrs. Patricia Yark from her contract as a teacher in the Type-A Room at the Lemmer School.

Hot Lunch Prices
In discussion items from the floor, the board heard a suggestion regarding the adult price of meals in the hot lunch program. The board has not yet set a price for adult meals in the program, but Charles Dean, Danforth, suggested that the price should be raised from the 50 cents price that had been suggested to the board.

Dean felt that because of increased teacher salaries and the larger reimbursement that the school is getting back in the hot lunch program, the adults could well afford a higher price. He said that there is no place in town that an adult can get a meal for 50 cents and that by paying a higher price, the program would be able to continue.

The board decided to discuss the matter at its next committee meeting.

Blood Bank Officials Cheered By Recovery, Frown Over Collection

Officials of the Red Cross Badger Blood Bank who were disappointed that the donor response in Delta County during the first two days of collection failed to meet quota were cheered by letters received from the parents of a two-year-old boy who received blood collected locally last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Westendorf of St. Paul, Minn., said in "Thank You" notes to residents of the area who donated blood for their son, Donald, that "he is fine" after open heart surgery.

Mrs. Edith Olsen, blood procurement chairman, said 12 units of blood collected in Delta County were used during the operation.

The Bloodmobile ended its three-day visit in the county at 3 p.m. today.

Collected 141 Units
Collection in Escanaba and Gladstone on the first two days totaled 141 units. Goal for the three days was 200 units, including 88 and Gladstone, Tuesday and 118 units on each of the two days in Escanaba.

In Gladstone, six of nine persons who had made appointments reported and there were 43 walk-ins. One person was rejected, bringing the total collected to 48 units.

Wednesday in Escanaba, 30 of 33 persons who had made appointments showed up and there were 55 walk-ins. Sixteen donors were rejected and collection reached 93 units.

Awards Made
Awards presented in Gladstone were: Dwayne Burak, Chemical Plant location, 8 gallons; Charles Borren, 1301 Minnesota Ave., 6 gallons; John Schroder, 1201 Montana Ave., 5 gallons; Gary Quick, Rapid River, 3 gallons.

In Escanaba, officials presented a 7-gallon pin to Chester Schram, 1820 6th Ave., S. Peter K. Short, 1009 4th Ave., S. received a 3-gallon award and James E. Casey, 107 N. 8th St., Wells, and Ione Schwabach, 211 S. 17th St., were given 3-gallon pins. One gallon awards went to Melvin L. Rancourt, Rt. 2, Bark River; Ronald Boston, 1114 1st Ave., S.; James E. Anderson, 1130 N. 18th St.; Linda A. Blomberg, 2006 2nd Ave., N.; Neil A. Hivels, 600 S. 16th St., and Mark A. Neumeier, 1833 10th Ave., S.

Court Decision Means $53,000 To Area Schools

The State Supreme Court decision on "free textbooks" will mean that the Escanaba Area public schools will have to absorb about $53,000 in costs previously paid by the student and his family, the Board of Education was informed Wednesday.

The State Supreme Court ruled that no Michigan Public School district may charge a student for textbook fees or school supplies, both of which have had a fee basis in past years in Escanaba.

On the basis of available information about the court decision, as school opens, the Escanaba Area Public Schools plan to use the following rates for student fees for areas other than book rentals. There will be no book rental fees charged at any of the schools in the district this year.

Charges legally may be made on the senior high school level for chemistry and physics textbooks; for library book fines; for graduation costs, for transcripts, for external tests, for the yearbook and for general handbook fees.

No fees will be made for art materials, band instruments, towel rental, gym lock rental, test book rental.

On the Junior High level charges may be made for the activity fee, for book damage fines, for report card fines, for library fines, and for the yearbook. No fees will be collected for test book rental, towel rental, gym lock rental, corridor lock rental, or band instruments.

There are presently no charges or fees to be collected at the elementary level. Text books and supplies will be furnished by the district.

Donald Westendorf ... is "fine" now

Petitions Ask Ballot On County Housing

County Clerk William E. Butler has been served with initiative petitions requesting that the Delta County Housing Ordinance be placed on the ballot to be accepted or rejected by voters of the county.

Petitions were filed by Leonard Gerou, 214 N. 18th St., who said he was assisted in gathering signatures by Leo Rahio, 1017 S. 17th St., and John Froberg, 3021 14th Ave. S.

Gerou said he believes the people should have a vote on the ordinance, questioning "parts" of the ordinance as published in the Aug. 7 edition of the Daily Press.

He made specific reference to the section on condemnation which provides that "the housing commission may recommend to the board of county commissioners the institution and prosecution of proceedings under the power of eminent domain in accordance with the laws of the state relative to condemnation."

Adopted By Board
He also said that while the ordinance provides that the Delta County Housing Commission will serve without compensation that they will be entitled to expenses and that's "going to cost the county some more money."

The ordinance was adopted by the Board of Commissioners by unanimous vote upon the recommendation of August Blome of Escanaba, housing specialist for the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress (UPCAP). It provides for a five-member commission to be appointed by the chairman of the county board.

"The only thing the ordinance would do would be to extend to smaller areas the advantage that Escanaba and Gladstone now enjoy," Blome said.

School Board Approves Reduced Millage Levy

By MIKE UTT
Tax levies were certified Wednesday night by the Escanaba Area Board of Education and, as the board promised before the annual school election on June 8, it only approved as much millage as was needed.

The board certified tax levies of 23.1 mills for operating expenses and 3.234 mills for debt, making the total school levy 26.334 mills for 1970.

Of this levy, the operating expenses included 8.0 mills that were allocated by the Delta County Tax Allocation Board and 15.1 was extra voted millage. The debts include .095 mills for Cornell, 2.077 mills for the 1960 debt and 1.062 mills for the 1966 debt.

12.6 Mills Asked
The millage issue placed on the ballot of this year's school election asked for approval of up to 12.6 mills for two years for operational purposes.

The board stressed the terminology "up to 12.6 mills" because of the uncertainty as to the amount of state support for schools this year. The board promised that if there was a sufficient increase in state funds, it would only levy as much less than the 12.6 mill request as possible.

The final state aid bill gave the Escanaba Area Public School District more money than it expected to receive and therefore, the Board of Education is only going to levy 12.1

mills instead of the 12.6 mills that it had asked.

15.1 Mill Total
The 12.1 mills gives the board its total of 15.1 extra voted millage. Another 3.0 mills was voted in 1966.

The 15.1 mills also assures the Escanaba Area Public Schools of state aid for the coming year, as the present state law requires that for the 1970-71 school year, a school district must levy at least 12 mills for operation in order to receive state aid funds.

In other business items on the agenda of Wednesday night's meeting, the board accepted the bid of the Escanaba Dairy, in the amount of six cents per half pint, to supply milk for the 1970-71 school year. Cloverland Creamery also submitted a bid of six cents per half pint, but since it has supplied milk to the district for the past two years through the Steward Sandwich Co., the bid of the Escanaba Dairy was accepted.

Calendar Approved
The 1970-71 school calendar was approved by the board. The calendar includes the following schedule: Aug. 31, first day of classes; Nov. 24-30, Thanksgiving vacation; Dec. 18-Jan. 4, Christmas vacation; April 8-14, Easter vacation; May 31, Memorial Day Holiday; June 4, last day of school.

Contracts were approved for Dr. James R. Ryan, superintendent of schools; Lillian Brookes, assistant high school librarian; Dorothy Ripley, sixth grade teacher at Ford River; Rebecca Blahnik, special reading; Joanne Banks, special reading; and Jean Seymour, school nurse.

The board also released Mrs. Patricia York from her contract as a teacher in the Type-A Room at the Lemmer School.

Hot Lunch Prices
In discussion items from the floor, the board heard a suggestion regarding the adult price of meals in the hot lunch program. The board has not yet set a price for adult meals in the program, but Charles Dean, Danforth, suggested that the price should be raised from the 50 cents price that had been suggested to the board.

Dean felt that because of increased teacher salaries and the larger reimbursement that the school is getting back in the hot lunch program, the adults could well afford a higher price. He said that there is no place in town that an adult can get a meal for 50 cents and that by paying a higher price, the program would be able to continue.

The board decided to discuss the matter at its next committee meeting.

Blood Bank Officials Cheered By Recovery, Frown Over Collection

Officials of the Red Cross Badger Blood Bank who were disappointed that the donor response in Delta County during the first two days of collection failed to meet quota were cheered by letters received from the parents of a two-year-old boy who received blood collected locally last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Westendorf of St. Paul, Minn., said in "Thank You" notes to residents of the area who donated blood for their son, Donald, that "he is fine" after open heart surgery.

Mrs. Edith Olsen, blood procurement chairman, said 12 units of blood collected in Delta County were used during the operation.

The Bloodmobile ended its three-day visit in the county at 3 p.m. today.

Collect 141 Units
Collection in Escanaba and Gladstone on the first two days totaled 141 units. Goal for the three days was 390 units, including 62 and Gladstone Tuesday and 119 units on each of the two days in Escanaba. In Gladstone, six of nine persons who had made appointments reported and there were 43 walk-ins. One person was rejected, bringing the total collected to 48 units.

Wednesday in Escanaba, 20 of 22 persons who had made appointments showed up and there were 81 walk-ins. Nine donors were rejected and collection reached 93 units.

Awards Made
Awards presented in Gladstone were: Dwayne Burak, Chemical Plant location, 8 gallons; Charles Borden, 1301 Minnesota Ave., 6 gallons; John Schroder, 1201 Montana Ave., 5 gallons; Gary Quick, Rapid River, 2 gallons.

In Escanaba, officials presented a 7-gallon pin to Chester Schram, 1820 6th Ave., S. Peter K. Short, 1009 4th Ave., S., received a 3-gallon award and James E. Casey, 107 N. 9th St., Wells, and Lene Schwalbach, 211 S. 17th St., were given 2-gallon pins. One gallon awards went to Melvin L. Racicot, Rte. 2, Bark River; Ronald Baston, 1114 1st Ave., S.; James C. Anderson, 1130 N. 18th St.; Linda A. Blomberg, 2008 2nd Ave., N.; Neil A. Hivala, 630 S. 10th St., and Mark A. Neumeier, 1835 10th Ave., S.

Court Decision Means $53,000 To Area Schools

The State Supreme Court decision on "free textbooks" will mean that the Escanaba Area public schools will have to absorb about $53,000 in costs previously paid by the student and his family, the Board of Education was informed Wednesday.

The State Supreme Court ruled that no Michigan Public School district may charge a student for textbook fees or school supplies, both of which have had a fee basis in past years in Escanaba.

On the basis of available information about the court decision, as school opens, the Escanaba Area Public Schools plan to use the following rates for student fees for areas other than book rentals. There will be no book rental fees charged at any of the schools in the district this year.

Charges legally may be made on the senior high school level for chemistry and physics breakage and industrial arts; for book damage fines; for report card fines; for library book fines; for graduation costs, for transcripts, for external tests, for the yearbook and for general handbook fees.

No fees will be made for art materials, band instruments, towel rental, gym lock rental, text book rental.

On the Junior High level charges may be made for the activity fee, for book damage fines, for report card fines, for library fines, and for the yearbook. No fees will be collected for text-book rental, towel rental, gym lock rental, corridor lock rental, or band instruments.

There are presently no charges or fees to be collected at the elementary level. Text books and supplies will be furnished by the district.

Medical Bills For Medicare Are Due Soon

The approach of fall means that persons with Medicare coverage should begin rounding up their doctor bills for payment by Medicare, according to Arnold T. Williams, social security district manager in Escanaba.

Bills for the end of 1968 and through Sept., 1969, must be presented for payment before the end of December or they cannot be paid at all, Williams said. Bills for 1970 and late 1969 will receive more rapid payment if presented before the rush in November and December.

Any needed help can be obtained by contacting the Escanaba social security office.

Petitions Ask Ballot On County Housing

County Clerk William E. Butler has been served with initiative petitions requesting that the Delta County Housing Ordinance be placed on the ballot to be accepted or rejected by voters of the county.

Petitions were filed by Leonard Gerou, 214 N. 18th St., who said he was assisted in gathering signatures by Leo Rahio, 1017 S. 17th St., and John Froberg, 2921 14th Ave. S.

Gerou said he believes the people should have a vote on the ordinance, questioning "parts" of the ordinance as published in the Aug. 7 edition of the Daily Press.

He made specific reference to the section on condemnation which provides that "the housing commission may recommend to the board of county commissioners the institution and prosecution of proceedings under the power of eminent domain in accordance with the laws of the state relative to condemnation."

Adopted By Board
He also said that while the ordinance provides that the Delta County Housing Commission will serve without compensation that they will be entitled to expenses and that's "going to cost the county some more money."

The ordinance was adopted by the Board of Commissioners by unanimous vote upon the recommendation of August Blome of Escanaba, housing specialist for the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress (UPCAP). It provides for a five-member commission to be appointed by the chairman of the county board.

"The only thing the ordinance would do would be to extend to smaller areas the advantage that Escanaba and Gladstone now enjoy," Blome said.

City Housing
Escanaba and Gladstone both have Housing Commissions and each has supervised construction of low-rent apartment buildings for senior citizens under federal programs.

Blome said the ordinance is not regulatory, but Gerou said that Escanaba was required by the federal government to enact a public housing code and that a similar code could be forced on the county.

"I don't think the people read the ordinance," Gerou said. "Let the Commission explain it. If it's a good ordinance the people will vote for it."

Blome said that under the ordinance the five-man County Housing Commission could contract with the U. S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and subcontract with any local unit of government such as Bark River, Rapid River, Wells, etc., on a public housing project. Purpose of the commission, he said, is to investigate the need for housing in the county and then, if a need is demonstrated, to develop programs in cooperation with HUD.

New Provision
Until last April 1, he pointed out, there was no federal provision for a county or regional housing unit. Blome continued. It had to be a city, village or township and there wasn't even provision for local units to combine in a program.

He said that while the ordinance does contain provision for the Housing Commission to recommend condemnation, it can only recommend such action. Condemnation proceedings would have to be initiated by the Board of Commissioners.

Butler said that Prosecuting Attorney John Beauchamp is checking the legality and form of the petitions and copies of the petitions have been sent to city and township clerks to verify the validity of signatures.

Upon receipt of the prosecutors opinion and the sufficiency of the petitions as returned by city and township clerks, Butler said, a decision will be made on an election.

He said the petitions were filed in time to conform with legal requirements.

Petition Procedure
The ordinance provides that it takes effect "subsequent to the expiration of 15 days after it has been published in a newspaper of general circulation."

Brickley, GOP Ask Who Can Produce?

Attorney James Brickley, tapped by Gov. William Milliken as his running mate on the Republican ticket this fall, said Wednesday that he views the major issue of the campaign as "who can make government work best."

The people know there are problems of crime, narcotics, pollution, etc., he pointed out, but the question is "who can do the best job on these."

Brickley, who is expected to be nominated for lieutenant where to go to get the answers. People vote for a judge because of his views on Vietnam, Brickley pointed out, and the judge doesn't have a thing to do with the war.

Milliken's hand-picked running mate, who resigned his position as U.S. Attorney for the eastern district of Michigan to seek the office, dismissed the widely-disseminated reports of a major split in the GOP because of the primary battle between Sen. Robert Huber and Mrs. George Romney.

"It isn't really wide at all. It's no wider than divisions in the Democratic party," he asserted, referring to the reputation this week of the "amnesty plank" in the Democratic Party platform by the party's major candidates.

He said that within the Democratic party there is harbored the philosophy that takes an "apologetic" approach to crime and other problems of society.

Judiciary Unit Sets Consumer Protest Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation permitting consumers to band together to sue against deceptive selling practices, already approved by one Senate committee, is going another going-over by the Judiciary Committee.

The Judiciary panel, starting its own hearings today in the unusual single-bill format committee consideration of the bill, has agreed to submit its recommendations by Sept. 14.

It is not an unusual occurrence for the Justice Department's consumer unit, and consumer advocates Ralph Nader.

The Senate Commerce Committee recently approved the bill by a divided vote. But Chief Justice Warren E. Burger later warned against legislation placing additional burdens on the federal courts "without adequate compensation of the government in terms of costs."

Burger specifically mentioned laws to allow class actions by consumers. He suggested looking more to state courts to handle such problems.

The bill, as approved by the Commerce Committee would permit consumers with claims of $50 or more to join together in federal court suits for damages arising from unfair or deceptive sales practices.

The committee rejected the Nader administration's proposal that such suits be permitted only if there had been a prior successful prosecution of the seller by the Justice Department or the Federal Trade Commission.

The bill also would expand the FTC's authority over unfair and deceptive practices and permit it to seek preliminary injunctions against them. It now is limited to issuance of cease-and-desist orders after such practices have taken place.

In addition, the bill would authorize both the FTC and the Justice Department to go into court to obtain penalties against intentional unfair consumer practices and redress for consumers.

Glenns Richmond, 600 E. 11th St., reported to City Police Wednesday that she had found an injured robin and that when she picked up the bird and took it to her home, she was scratched on the nose.

and that's not the way to solve problems.

"The vote of Sen. Huber in the primary do not belong to him," he continued. "These voters won't desert the party. It's unthinkable they would vote for Sen. Hart or Senator Levin."

Brickley said, however, that the Democrats have "done a pretty good job of putting up a politically palatable slate of candidates" and that just means the Republicans have a lot of work to do before the November election.

"Just having the best candidate for governor isn't enough," he added.

Brickley, who served five years on the Common Council of Detroit, worked for the FBI for four years, served as chief assistant prosecuting attorney for Wayne County and also taught government at the University of Detroit and the University of Michigan, said he plans to return to the Upper Peninsula before the campaign is over.

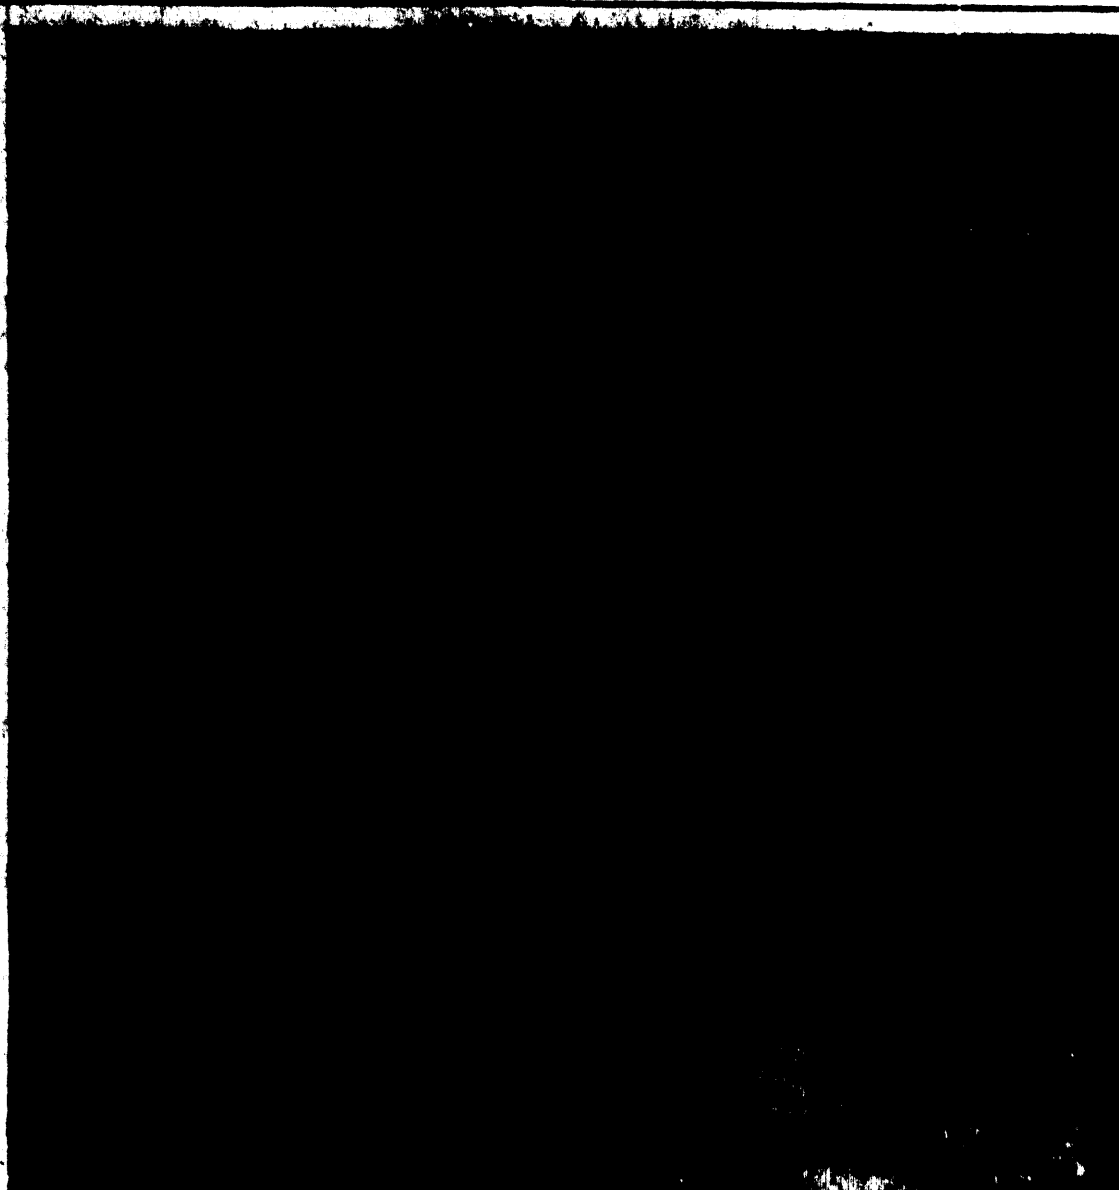

Chance Of Corn Shortage Small, Heirman Reports

Corn has been in the spotlight for the past two weeks because of leaf blight hitting the corn crop throughout the cornbelt area, but Joseph Heirman, county extension agent, said today that "it appears that there is very little likelihood of running out of feed grains during the 1970-71 feeding year."

Heirman said some of the publicity has caused farmers into thinking that there will be a feed shortage for their animals and the scare has caused prices to move upward on corn.

The American Feed Manufacturing Association is in the process of evaluating the present corn situation, he reported. As of now they feel that corn production will be down from five to 10 per cent.

"This does not mean a corn shortage," Heirman continued. "The feed grain carryover is large enough to move them out of the corn crop. In addition, we are currently exporting millions of tons of corn and other feed grains each year which could be diverted to domestic usage, if necessary."

Know the Counter

Bob Krohmer

Most people know they should avoid poison ivy, but they often don't realize that the rash can spread and even get on the face and neck. The rash is caused by the plant's oil, which is found in the leaves and stems. It is a booklet to you family physician that lists 25 common plants and trees which contain substances that, when eaten or allowed to come in contact with the skin, cause physical harm.

The major area of concern, the booklet notes, "hinges on the allergic sensitivity of children. The most toxic parts of poisonous plants are usually the most attractive to children, who are prompted to experiment with roots, fruits, flowers and stems whether they happen to enjoy the taste or not."

Also, there are still thousands of people who experiment with wild plants and berries as foods, often in various homespun medicines. These persons can harm themselves if they don't know exactly what can be safely used.

The booklet lists a half-dozen edible safety tips:

- 1) Never eat any part of an unknown plant.
- 2) Eat only properly-prepared foods from well-known sources.
- 3) Never chew on jewelry made from imported seeds or beans.
- 4) Never use anything prepared from nature as medicine or "tea."
- 5) Learn to identify the poisonous plants in your neighborhood and home.
- 6) Finally, ignore those who tell you children

Year Around School

The end of a glorious summer is hardly an opportune time to bring up the subject of year-round schools, but a couple of recent developments provoke comment at this juncture.

One is the release of a 580-page study on the possibility of operating schools in downstate Utica on a year-round basis. In connection with the study, Utica school officials estimated their 22,000-pupil district could save at least $100 million in building costs over a 10-year period by operating on a 12-month basis.

Philip Runkel, school superintendent, predicted the 12-month system "is inevitable in our society because in the long pull it will be more economical."

Earlier this year, the board of education in Jefferson County in Kentucky voted to abandon the nine-month school year and conduct classes for all 12 grades on a four-quarter, year-round basis. Here again, the objective is to save money in school building construction costs — and also to make better use of educational personnel.

The program is expected to be in operation a year from next month. Thereafter, the 90,000 youngsters in Jefferson County will have the option of going to school all year or, if they prefer to take the traditional vacation, they may do so in any one of the four seasons and attend classes in the remaining three seasons.

What makes more sense than operating schools throughout the year? The custom of closing schools during the summer stems in part from the early days of the nation's settlement when society was predominantly rural and youngsters were needed to help in the fields. As the nation moved from a rural to an urban society, the tradition of summer vacations remained.

But this, like so many other customs in the modern world, is changing. Many families in the northern part of the nation now prefer winter vacations that can be spent in Florida, Arizona and other warmer climates. Winter sports have grown so tremendously in popularity that other families find as much outdoor recreation — or more — in the winter as in the summer.

Why, then, should schools be open for only three seasons and closed in the very season when operation costs are lowest?

Why shouldn't children — and teachers — be given a choice in school schedules? Let the pupils elect to attend any three of the four quarters (spring, summer, fall or winter) or, if they are so inclined, let them attend four quarters each year and complete their high school education in three years instead of four.

Without a doubt there are problems in shifting to a year-around operation. Class schedules would have to be adjusted, for example, to accommodate students entering classes any different times of the year, perhaps on the order of college programs. Additional teachers might be needed, although it can be argued that a given number of teachers is necessary for a given number of students regardless of when they're in class.

But adoption of a year-around class system is equivalent to increasing the size of a community's educational plant by 25 per cent without building a single new classroom. This should be a matter of more than passing interest to a community like Escanaba, where classroom space presently is at a premium.

Year-around schools are practical, economical and — as Supt. Runkel says — inevitable. To have millions of dollars in buildings and equipment largely sitting idle for three months of the year is an extravagance the public can't really afford.

Peninsula Potpourri

Hard-working thieves with long-handled cutters stripped two and a half miles of copper wire from poles along the Soo Line and Chicago & North Western Railway right of way between Ironwood and Bessemer recently. Timothy Nolan, foreman for the Soo Line in Ironwood, said the wire was cut from the poles by persons on the ground, apparently using a tree trimmer or similar device.

A proposal to have one city manager serving both Houghton and Hancock was discussed in depth at a recent executive committee meeting of the Houghton and Hancock City Councils, both of which are believed to be leaning in favor of the plan.

Gogebic County's Board of District Commissioners has voiced its opposition to "rock festivals" in this area. A resolution declaring that it was "opposed to the holding of any such type of entertainment" was adopted, with the matter being referred to the board's Hospital and Health Committee for consideration of future passage of an ordinance "with teeth in it."

Plans and specifications for the Kingsford housing project providing for 41 elderly and 30 low income dwellings have been approved by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Bids will be opened Sept. 24. The projects will be constructed with $1,281,129 in federal low rent housing funds.

Ray B. Gummerson, Marquette, district extension leader in resource development for the Upper Peninsula, received a distinguished service award at the annual meeting of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents in Corvallis, Ore. The citation called Gummerson "a guiding force behind a strong tourist and resort industry, greater industrial development and increased economic growth in the Upper Peninsula."

Robert Neldberg, Marquette, has been named a member and acting co-chairman of the Michigan Council for Voluntary Action. The council replaces the former Michigan Human Resources Council and will attempt to stimulate volunteer action programs in Michigan. Neldberg is director of personnel and public relations for St. Luke's Hospital.

Don't Sell Out Murphy In California Contest

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Republican Sen. George Murphy is supposed to be in trouble in California with his Democratic opponent, U. S. Rep. John Tunney.

The latter has been improving in the polls, even taking a five-point lead in one of them. But don't underestimate George's resourcefulness. You could say he has the luck of the Irish, only in this case it would be a meaningless way of putting it, for George Tunney's son John is Irish—or part Irish—too.

However, I've watched George Murphy ever since we were college classmates together, and I've never seen him land anywhere except on his nimble dancer's feet.

He beat Pierre Salinger, the Kennedy man from the East Coast, in the 1964 California go-around for the U. S. Senate, by a soft sell that invited the voters to ask "unlucky Pierre" who had sent him West.

He can't do that with Tunney, who is a legitimate Californian with three Congressional terms from Riverside behind him. However, some of the people working for Tunney have been making what could prove to be a cardinal mistake. They have been bringing up the name of Patrick Frawley, a generous champion of conservative causes, the intention being to smear Senator Murphy as an unmitigated right-winger simply because Frawley has supported him.

Murphy has been on the payroll of Technicolor, a Frawley company, for quite legitimate reasons, as an adviser on the motion picture industry which he has known so well both as an actor and as a labor leader in the Screen Actors Guild. But the motive in raising the Frawley issue is not so much to show "conflict of interest" as it is to connect Murphy with a "super-patriot."

This strategy is "pre-Agnew," and therefore quite stupid. If anything is plain, Vice President Spiro Agnew has energized a vast army of hitherto silent people who used to feel uncomfortably conspicuous if they put flag decals on their car windows but who now think they constitute an increasingly popular "in-group" of their own. The more that John Tunney's boys enable George Murphy to wave the flag, the better it will be for George.

Incidentally, Gene Tunney, the old heavyweight champion who is in his son's corner for quite understandable reasons, has always been a good flag-waver himself. Gene Tunney has talked in season and out about the necessity of fighting Communist expansion, and in our last conversation in New York he expressed special enjoyment of conservative columnists, beginning with Bill Buckley. (I'm not asking for a Gene Tunney right to the jaw; I know he's a gentleman.)

It wasn't so long ago that John Tunney was rapping President Richard Nixon's plea for support of his policy of "Vietnamization." Speaking to a Stanford University audience last November, he posed a rhetorical question that now rings at least a bit hollow.

"How," he asked, "is Vietnamization of the war going to help when they can't do what both the U. S. and the South Vietnamese haven't been able to do—win a military victory?" Since then the South Vietnamese have been "bloated" as fighters in a very real offensive in Cambodia. "Vietnamization" is not certain of success, but neither is there any certainty at this point that it will prove to be a failure. You may be sure that Senator Murphy will make the most of John Tunney's old conviction that all has been lost in Southeast Asia.

There is also Tunney's argument that we have had what he calls a "bloated" foreign policy. Sure, we have. But who "bloated" it? It was a Democratic Administration that sent more than 500,000 Americans to Vietnam and kept them fighting for five years without permitting our generals to undertake flanking attacks across the Laotian, the Cambodian, and the North Vietnamese borders.

As everyone ought to know, a war in which you don't allow yourself flanking operations is the most expensive—or "bloated"—type of war, for,

Vote Splitting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., voted with the majority Wednesday as the Senate rejected, 62 to 22, an amendment to ban U.S. use of plant-killing chemicals in the Vietnam war.

Michigan's Sen. Philip Hart, a Democrat, voted for the amendment.

like the trench war of 1914-18 in France, it becomes endless. At West Point they used to teach that to stand on fixed lines was the supreme military idiom. It means that you are coming close to imposing siege conditions on yourself. Luckily we commanded the sea and the air in Southeast Asia, but the machines needed to dominate sea and air for five years run into real financial "bloat."

Even though he has had a throat operation (a success), Senator Murphy will succeed in throwing the "bloat" argument back in his opponent's face. If you want to know how beguiling and resourceful Murphy is, read the autobiography, "Say . . . Didn't You Used to be George Murphy?", written with the aid of Victor Lasky.

Murphy has turned the bell-curve Lasky of the anti-Kennedy books into a sweet yeasayer, and this in itself is an index of what our senior Senator from California can do.

Letters To The Press

TRAFFIC JAM

My husband and I took the children to the U. P. State Fair Sunday and had a very enjoyable day. After hours of walking through the grounds we decided to make our way home at 4:30 p. m. Would you believe it was 6 p. m. before we got out of there?

I have never in my life seen such an unnecessary traffic jam and I've been in some of the best. I hope that some of the unfortunate other people who were stuck with us, tempers flaring, cars overheating, will do what they can to make sure this never happens again. My husband says he'll never go again, but I won't give up that easily. This was all inside the fairgrounds. There was one lane of traffic coming in and four lanes trying to get out, all blocked by people parked alongside the buildings. Only one exit gate opened and absolutely nobody directing traffic.

This is very bad planning on somebody's part and since I hope to attend many State Fairs in the U. P., I hope it will be corrected by next year.

COUNTRY SHOW

Another U. P. State Fair has been here and gone and I'd like to say something about our Country Show this year. I attended both afternoon and evening performances and to the people who attended the afternoon show and was as disappointed as I was—they did put on a better show in the evening. Tammy Wynette did appear and managed to sing one song . . . If she could travel this far on a bus it sure couldn't have hurt her to sing a few songs, but I don't imagine she was getting paid so why do more than you have to, because, in my opinion, performers who don't have time to sign their autographs after a show don't care about their fans. They're in the entertainment field for the money—not because they enjoy entertaining.

Another thing, I don't think much of a performer who would cancel out just two weeks before a show. Having a

Opening lead—king of spades. Let's say you're declarer with the South hand and West leads the king of spades. There seems to be very little to the play, so one thing you might do is win the spade with the ace, lead a club to the queen, discard two spades on the A-K of diamonds, then lead a heart and either finesse the queen or go up with the ace.

Whichever you do you are in trouble when West shows out. You would still be in good shape if you could return to dummy with a club in order to lead another trump through East, but, when you try this, he ruffs and you later lose another trump trick to go down one.

True, you are unlucky to lose the hand if you played it this way, but even so you must assume a fair share of the blame for missing the contract. This was not the best way to play the hand. It is obvious from the start that about the only distribution that could put the slam in jeopardy is a 4-0 trump division. If West has the four trumps the contract is hopeless, so you should assume that East has them.

The proper way of preparing for this contingency is to lead the ace of hearts at trick two. When West shows out, the rest of the play becomes relatively simple. You cross to dummy with a club, cash the A-K of diamonds and discard two spades, then lead a trump from dummy. It does not matter whether East follows low or goes up with the king; in either event you lose only one trump trick.

Ann Landers
Midland Invitation Sounds Good To Ann

Dear Ann Landers: You've done it again—for the one millionth time—and I'm sick of it. I refer to your slamming home movies. In the column I am now reading you said, "I know of few things less interesting than another person's blueprints—unless, maybe, it's slides they've taken of their last trip." Maybe YOUR dumb friends and relatives take some lousy pictures of dull places, but that doesn't mean the whole world is like that.

For instance, my Uncle Joe takes wonderful pictures. The slides of his trips are always a treat. The whole family loves to look at them. It's like being right along on the trip. If you are ever near Midland, Michigan, Ann, I hope you will drop over to Uncle Joe's and spend an hour looking at his slides. I promise you, you'll change your mind.—D. F. S.

Dear D. F. S.: Some invitation! What's your name? I can't find you in Midland with only initials to go by. Uncle Joe who? Where does he live? I've been in Midland—twice, in fact. It's one of the prettiest cities in America. And it has one of the best newspapers, too. Give me a REAL invitation and I might surprise you.

Dear Ann Landers: I'll be brief and to the point. We live in a high-class neighborhood. Trashy people can't afford to buy homes in this section. Six months ago a certain young couple bought the house next door. They have two children—an infant girl and a little boy, about two and a half years old. The mother allows the boy to run around the yard nude. I find this very embarrassing and my husband doesn't like it either. Is there a law against it? We don't want to call the police but if our neighbors are violating an ordinance perhaps we should.

I had some ladies in for bridge yesterday and that naked kid next door was standing right in front of our house. He is cheapening our property. Please tell us what to do.—888

Dear 888: The sight of a two-and-a-half-year-old boy with no clothes on does not offend me in a house or a yard, but in our society people who appear in public are expected to wear some covering, and this means people of all ages. This is not a matter for the police, but DO suggest to the mother that she put some clothing on the boy for protection against injury, if for no other reason.

Dear Ann Landers: Are girls "forever" or until you want them back?

I have just received a list (17 items) which my former fiancée would like returned. The list dates back to 1962. Her memory astounds me.

I asked the advice of a friend who was in a similar spot last year. He said, "Give everything back or you'll never get rid of her."

Incidentally, she is NOT returning the engagement ring! May I hear your views on this subject?—Fence-Sitting
Dear Fence: Eight years is a long time to just "go with" a girl and she is undoubtedly trying to get even—poor thing. Your friend gave you sound advice and I hope you take it. In the meantime, the lady is entitled to the ring if the gentleman breaks the engagement, which I'll bet you did.

Confidential to all who wrote regarding the quote in question: The motto, "If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem," is not original with me. This phrase belongs to Eldridge Cleaver.

How will you know when the real thing comes along? Ask Ann Landers. Send for her booklet, "Love Or Sex And How To Tell The Difference." Send 35c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request. © Publishers-Hall Syndicate

Women's Liberation Quiet In Motor City

DETROIT (AP)—The 24th anniversary of women's suffrage passed in Detroit Wednesday, with the ladies maintaining a low-profile in their campaign for liberation.

Information booths and guerrilla theater, intended to "dramatize women's attitudes," drew a noontime crowd of about 1,000 to Seligman Square in downtown Detroit. Seminars on women in politics and abortion reform were conducted in the Downtown YMCA.

The only fire-burner in sight was a Detroit die jockey, a male, who torched a size 48 in the middle of the Kennedy Square pool—which was drained at the time.

The only potential confrontation flared into comments of mutual admiration between the ladies of the Women's Liberation Coalition (WLC) who organized the Detroit activities, and the gentlemen of the Detroit Common Council.

About a dozen members of the WLC left Kennedy Square, headed for the City-County Building with their children in tow, for what they called a "wet in."

The operation, designed to dramatize the need for a 24-hour child day care center for working mothers, involved sitting down on the building's Woodward Avenue sidewalk while the youngsters—who were supposed to provide the "wet"—drilled on the Spirit of Detroit statue in front of City Hall.

The women eventually formed a picket line in front of the council chambers until informed that the council was expecting them to come in and visit.

Once inside, the women appeared somewhat surprised to discover most of the councilmen agreed with them. Councilman Nicholas Hood urged them to set a firm date for a formal appearance before the council to discuss the problem and told his colleagues, "the problem is much greater than what we see here."

Councilman David Eberhard, Ernest C. Browne and Carl Levin also spoke in favor of the women, who agreed to a Sept. 18 appearance.

"They were absolutely terrific," said Mrs. Marie Flynn, one of the WLC spokeswomen. "I guess I had them stereotyped before, huh?"

The women left the council chambers and disappeared long enough to dye their face black, red, white and yellow for the guerrilla theater. The colors symbolized the races of man and the women gave two performances in different areas of the Kennedy pool while an all-women camera crew from a Detroit television station filmed the events.

Then the women retired to their seminars.

The WLC did not ask local women to stay off the jobs, as liberation leaders did in other cities. Major Detroit area firms reported normal absenteeism.

"Women in Detroit are so oppressed that they'd be fired if they left their job to join a strike today," said one coalition spokeswoman.

St. Clair Fishing Improves; Eating Ban Still Remains

LANSING (AP)—Michigan health and conservation officials have reported indications to Gov. William G. Milliken that mercury residues may be declining in greater Lake St. Clair fish.

But the report of most recent testing indicated Wednesday there still are fish in the St. Clair system that contain more mercury than allowed by the 0.5 parts per million guideline.

Milliken's office announced that the controversial "catch and release" limitation on fishing in the St. Clair River and Lake system will be maintained.

The report, crosschecked Wednesday afternoon with Canadian officials who also have been testing fish samples from Lake St. Clair, indicated several possible reasons for a decline in residue levels from averages compiled earlier.

Officials said migratory habits of fish, seasonal feeding variations and relatively restricted species samplings were several factors that must be more clearly considered before conclusions can be reached.

Beyond that, officials have not come up with ways to begin trying to remove remaining mercury deposits from the water.

Junk Car Problem Grows Bigger Yearly

WASHINGTON (AP)—An administration spokesman predicted today that 1.3 million cars will be abandoned on public and private property this year.

William C. Stitt, special assistant to the assistant secretary of Health, Education and Welfare for planning, forecast the number of rusting eye-sores will grow to 1.5 million by 1975.

For these reasons he called for a comprehensive solution to the junk car problem rather than a piecemeal approach.

Stitt testified before a Senate Public Works subcommittee examining the problem of junked and abandoned automobiles.

He objected to one pending bill which would provide a fee of $25 to $50 to be paid a car owner delivering an old car to a processor. This bill, Stitt said, offers little incentive to a junk automobile processor and no assurance the processors would accept the cars.

And he said a bill by Sen. Edward Gurney, (R-Me.), to provide funds to states for moving junked cars to scrap processors while offering a possible solution to one aspect of the problem is now a comprehensive solution.

Stitt said it is a complicated problem involving abandoned cars, vehicle inventories of scrap car dealers and incomplete utilization of automobile scrap. Prices paid for scrap and the grade of the scrap, he said, are factors in the situation.

Stitt said a system of fines and penalties imposed on junk car dealers for having too many rusting hulks on hand might be an approach.

However, Gurney said if the problem was that simple, cities and counties would have hit upon the solution long ago.

"If you fine the dealers, they'll just go out of business and then there'll be no place to take these cars," he said.

Stitt contended, however, that dealers derive most of their income from salvage of parts, rather than sale of the bodies so a fines system would not drive them out of business but might induce them to move the bodies along to processors.

Big Summer Science Camp has closed for the 1970 season and the 27 students studying there have left for their homes. Classes will resume next spring. Dan Stevens, camp director, has left for a trip to Chicago before leaving for his home in Ann Arbor.

John Lewandowski son of Mrs. Marge Lewandowski of Garden, left Sunday, Aug. 23 for Olivet College, Olivet, Mich. where he will commence studies under a scholarship granted him upon graduation from Big Bay De Noc High School in Nahma. He also won honors in basketball and other sports from Big Bay de Noc.

Heart Trouble Warning Issued By Computer

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. (AP)—Three scientists have created a computer about the size of a desk of cards that they say may save thousands of lives by warning heart-attack patients of possible trouble.

The device, called VIDA—Vitality Impulse Detector and Alarm—gives off a loud beep when a patient's heart produces "ectopic" beats, a sure sign of "occasional" heart fibrillation that causes the heart to skip pumping.

Once the alarm sounds, patients have about three days to seek medical attention, the inventors say.

Creators of the thirty-pound computer were Dr. John W. Gishman of San Francisco, and two California electronics specialists, Robert L. Chapman of Danville and Richard D. Lowers of Castro Valley, who have set up offices in this San Francisco-Oakland suburb.

"It's really tragic to realize that many people die from temporary heart fibrillations," Chapman said in an interview.

He said the device is attached by two electrodes to the chest. A special circuit protector prevents possible false alarms.

A prototype model has been developed, and a dozen more are being built for testing before marketing, possibly in 1971, the men say.

The idea for the device was born several years ago when Dr. Gishman suggested it to Chapman, who evolved the basic electronic concept.

They patented VIDA in 1964. The normal number of a patient's heart beats is set in the computer beforehand, and as long as the heart functions normally no sound is made.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

NO-FAULT AUTO INSURANCE goes into effect in Massachusetts as Gov. Francis W. Sargent signs the bill into law in Boston. Mainly, under this law, insurers are required to pay claims of policyholders for medical expenses, salary and other out-of-pocket losses up to $3,000 regardless of who is at fault in an auto accident. Thus a good deal of costly investigating is avoided.

Students Claiming Hopscotch Record

FLINT (AP)—Five Flint-area high school students, all 17 years old, are claiming a new world record—in hopscotch.

Heart Trouble Warning Issued By Computer

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. (AP) — Three scientists have created a computer about the size of a deck of cards that they say may save thousands of lives by warning heart-care patients of possible trouble.

The device, called VIDA—Ventricular Impulse Detector and Alarm—gives off a loud beep when a patient's heart produces "ectopic" beats, a sure sign of usually fatal heart fibrillation that causes the heart to stop pumping.

Once the alarm sounds, patients have about three days to seek medical attention, the inventors say.

Creators of the shirt-pocket computer are Dr. John W. Gofman of San Francisco, and two California electronics specialists, Robert L. Chapman of Danville and Richard D. Lawhorn of Castro Valley, who have set up offices in this San Francisco-Oakland suburb.

"It's really tragic to realize that many people die from temporary heart fibrillations," Chapman said in an interview.

He said the device is attached by two electrodes to the chest. A special circuit protector prevents possible false alarms.

A prototype model has been developed, and a dozen more are being built for testing before marketing, possibly in 1971, the men say.

The idea for the device was born several years ago when Dr. Gofman suggested it to Chapman, who evolved the basic electronic concept.

They patented VIDA in 1964.

The normal number of a patient's heart beats is set in the computer beforehand, and as long as the heart functions normally no sound is made.

Women's Liberation Quiet In Motor City

DETROIT (AP)—The 50th anniversary of women's suffrage passed in Detroit Wednesday, with the ladies maintaining a non-violent low profile in their campaign for liberation.

Information booths and guerilla theater, intended to "dramatize women's anxieties", drew a noontime crowd of about 1,000 to sunny Kennedy Square in downtown Detroit. Seminars on women in politics and abortion reform were conducted in the Downtown YMCA.

The only bra-burner in sight was a Detroit disc jockey, a male, who torched a size 44 EE in the middle of the Kennedy Square pool—which was drained at the time.

The only potential confrontation fizzled into comments of mutual admiration between the ladies of the Women's Liberation Coalition (WLC) who organized the Detroit activities, and the gentlemen of the Detroit Common Council.

About a dozen members of the WLC left Kennedy Square, headed for the City-County Building with their children in tow, for what they called a "wet in."

The operation, designed to dramatize the need for a 24-hour child day care center for working mothers, involved sitting down on the building's Woodward Avenue sidewalk while the youngsters—who were supposed to provide the "wet"—frolicked on the Spirit of Detroit statue in front of City Hall.

The women eventually formed a picket line in front of the council chambers until informed that the council was expecting them to come in and visit.

Once inside, the women appeared somewhat surprised to discover most of the councilmen agreed with them. Councilman Nicholas Hood urged them to set a firm date for a formal appearance before the council to discuss the problem and told his colleagues, "the problem is much greater than what we see here."

Councilmen David Eberhard, Ernest C. Browne and Carl Levin also spoke in favor of the women, who agreed to a Sept. 18 appearance.

"They were absolutely terrific," said Mrs. Maria Flynn, one of the WLC spokeswomen. "I guess I had them stereotyped before, huh?"

chambers and disappeared long enough to dye their face black, red, white and yellow for the guerrilla theater. The colors symbolized the races of man and the women gave two performances in different areas of the Kennedy pool while an all-women camera crew from a Detroit television station filmed the events.

Then the women retired to their seminars.

The WLC did not ask local women to stay off the jobs, as liberation leaders did in other cities. Major Detroit area firms reported normal absenteeism.

"Women in Detroit are so oppressed that they'd be fired if they left their job to join a strike today," said one coalition spokesman.

St. Clair Fishing Improves; Eating Ban Still Remains

LANSING (AP) — Michigan health and conservation officials have reported indications to Gov. William G. Milliken that mercury residue may be declining in greater Lake St. Clair fish.

But the report of most recent testing indicated Wednesday there still are fish in the St. Clair system that contain more mercury than allowed by the 0.5 parts per million guideline.

Milliken's office announced that the controversial "catch and release" limitation on fishing in the St. Clair River and lake system will be maintained. The report, crosschecked Wednesday afternoon with Canadian officials who also have been testing fish samples from Lake St. Clair, indicated several possible reasons for a decline in residue levels from averages compiled earlier.

Officials said migratory habits of fish, seasonal feeding variations and relatively restricted species samplings were several factors that must be more clearly considered before conclusions can be reached.

Beyond that, officials have not come up with ways to begin trying to remove remaining mercury deposits from the water.

Classified Ads Cost Little, But Do A Big Job!

NO-FAULT AUTO INSURANCE goes into effect in Massachusetts as Gov. Francis W. Sargent signs the bill into law in Boston. Mainly, under this law, insurers are required to pay claims of policyholders for medical expenses, salary and other out-of-pocket losses up to $2,000 regardless of who is at fault in an auto accident. Thus a good deal of costly investigating is avoided.

Junk Car Problem Grows Bigger Yearly

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration spokesman predicted today that 1.3 million cars will be abandoned on public and private property this year.

William C. Stitt, special assistant to the assistant secretary of Health, Education and Welfare for planning, forecast the number of rusting eye-sores will grow to 1.5 million by 1975. For these reasons he called for a comprehensive solution to the junk car problem rather than a piece-meal approach.

Stitt testified before a Senate Public Works subcommittee examining the problem of junked and abandoned automobiles.

He objected to one pending bill which would provide a fee of $25 to $50 to be paid a car owner delivering an old car to a processor. This bill, Stitt said, offers little incentive to a junk automobile processor and no assurance the processors would accept the cars.

And he said a bill by Sen. Edward Gurney, (R-Fla.), to provide funds to states for moving junked cars to scrap processors while offering a possible solution to one aspect of the problem is now a comprehensive solution.

Stitt said it is a complicated problem involving abandoned cars, vehicle inventories of scrap car dealers and incomplete utilization of automobile scrap. Prices paid for scrap and the grade of the scrap, he said, are factors in the situation.

Stitt said a system of fines and penalties imposed on junk car dealers for having too many rusting hulks on hand might be an approach.

However, Gurney said if the problem was that simple, cities and counties would have hit upon the solution long ago.

"If you fine the dealers, they'll just go out of business and then there'll be no place to take these cars," he said.

Stitt contended, however, that dealers derive most of their income from salvage of parts, rather than sale of the bodies so a fines system would not drive them out of business but might induce them to move the bodies along to processors.

Students Claiming Hopscotch Record

FLINT (AP)—Five Flint-area high school students, all 17 years old, are claiming a new world record—in hopscotch.

They said the former record was 24 hours and ten minutes, and they claim that their new mark is 24 hours, 40 minutes and 20 seconds. The Flint teenagers say that according to the record book, the previous record was set in London, England, by ten students in 1968.

Diplomatic Effort Made To Return Labadie To U.S.

Rep. Charles Varnum of Manistique said today that he has initiated diplomatic efforts in an effort to secure the return of 27-year-old Robert J. Labadie of Nahma who has been charged by the federal government with kidnapping and air piracy in Monday night's hijacking of a TWA jetliner to Cuba.

"I have been in constant touch with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Labadie of Nahma since I received their call Tuesday evening," Varnum said. "I also have been in contact with the U.S. Army Valley Forge Hospital in Phoenixville, Pa., where Labadie has been a psychiatric patient.

Work Through Swiss

"I have instituted a diplomatic search through the Swiss embassy in an attempt to secure Labadie's release. Naturally, it is my hope that efforts to release the boy will be successful so that he can be returned for proper care."

Airline officials said the uniformed soldier who hijacked the plane got off the airplane after it landed at the Havana airport in Cuba.

Charges against Labadie were filed by federal authorities at Fort Wayne, Ind. The FBI is seeking Labadie as a fugitive with bond set at $100,000.

Federal authorities said a man identified as Labadie boarded the TWA 727 in Chicago Monday night on a flight to Philadelphia and when the plane was about 50 miles from Chicago, near Fort Wayne, announced "We're going to Cuba."

The man told an airline hostess that he had an accomplice with a bomb aboard the plane which would be triggered at his signal. The plane landed at Pittsburgh to refuel, then took off again for Cuba.

Served In Vietnam

Labadie, who served in Vietnam with the 563rd Heavy Material Support Co. and then the 701st Maintenance Battalion of the 1st Infantry, was transferred to Valley Forge Dec. 5, 1969, from the 249th General Hospital in Japan. He had been admitted to the hospital in Japan Nov. 15, 1969, according to officials at Valley Forge.

Hospital officials said Labadie was on a 31-day authorized convalescent leave and was due back at the hospital Sept. 1. Neighbors in Nahma said the young man had been at home with his parents for several weeks before leaving Monday.

The young man's parents have declined comment to newsmen. Varnum said he has advised them to remain silent to avoid any possibility of disrupting diplomatic efforts.

Market Rebounds After Downspin

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices rebounded slightly from early losses today after the announcement that the government's index of "leading indicators" for July had risen.

Trading remained moderate, but the New York Stock Exchange tape ran one minute late.

At noon, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials gained 1.58 points to 762.05. Earlier, it had been down more than 3 points.

Advances on the Big Board overtook declines for the first time in today's trading session to hold a small lead.

Today's report that the "leading indicators" had gained 1.6 per cent, the first time in over a year that the index has risen for two consecutive months, coupled with Tuesday's announcement of a drop in the wholesale price index, was very encouraging, analysts said.

Gains ran through drugs, rails and utilities while losses ran through tobacco, and chemicals. Other industry groups were mixed.

Glamors were generally higher.

Earlier analysts had predicted that today's market would be uncertain in view of the profit taking of the past two days.

The Associated Press index of 60 stocks was unchanged at 248.7 with industrials off 1.1, rails up .5 and utilities up .3.

2 Downstate Cities Under Curfew Plan

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (AP)—Two Detroit suburbs are under indefinite local states of emergency today, following three nights of rock and bottle throwing rampages by teenagers.

At least 400 youths were arrested Wednesday night after a clash with police in Royal Oak and the adjacent suburb of Birmingham, according to Royal Oak Assistant Police Chief James Soule.

That brings the three-day arrest total to over 500. Most were arrested for curfew violation, although Soule said several arrests were made on suspicion of narcotics possession.

At least two policemen were reported injured. One suffered a possible broken shoulder when he was struck by a rock and another was cut by glass when windows were smashed out of both sides of his squad car, Soule said.

An undetermined number of youths were also injured.

The state of emergency allows the mayors of both suburbs to impose curfews on their cities.

Under the local state of emergency, the mayors have imposed dusk to dawn curfews on the two suburbs.

The youths gathered early Wednesday evening at a park in Birmingham, where a curfew had not yet been ordered, and headed for Royal Oak, which had ordered a curfew after two previous nights of disturbances.

Thuy 'AWOL' At Paris Talks

PARIS (AP)—North Vietnam's chief delegate to the Paris peace talks, Xuan Thuy, failed to show up today for the 81st session of the talks, continuing an 8 1/2-month boycott. But his deputy told newsmen he would be present next Thursday.

Thuy returned to Paris Wednesday after a 3 1/2-month trip home. His deputy, Nguyen Minh Vy, said: "After a long trip, he is taking a little rest."

The American delegation was represented by Ambassador David K. E. Bruce, who missed last week's session, and the South Vietnamese by chief delegate Phan Dang Lam. The Viet Cong sent their delegation's third man, Nguyen Van Tien.

Thuy on his return to Paris indicated he brought no new peace proposals. But he said he would consider resuming secret talks with the Americans now that the United States is represented by a chief delegate instead of the previous acting delegation chief, Philip C. Habib.

Vy, the first speaker at today's session, said the American delegation spoke one way while ranking officials in the Nixon administration contradicted them.

The Viet Cong delegate repeated his side's "irreducible" demands: "the immediate and total withdrawal from South Vietnam of American troops ... without posing any conditions whatsoever (and) the abandonment of the administration" in Saigon.

The South Vietnamese ambassador countered by charging that "your unchanged position boils down to two extreme demands. You consider these demands as preconditions which must be accepted by our side before genuine negotiations could begin."

Russ Test Multiple Warheads: Laird

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird says the Soviets have test-fired multiple warheads on their basic SS11 intercontinental ballistic missile for the first time.

And his top Pentagon scientist says at the present pace the Soviets could not only outstrip the United States in strategic and tactical weaponry by 1976 but in secret technology as well.

Laird announced Wednesday an American destroyer saw three objects drop in the Pacific near Midway Island last Friday from an SS11, the Russian equivalent of the U.S. Minuteman.

It is not known, he said, if the objects were weapons or if they were aimed and not simply dropped.

"If (they) do deploy this system and it does have three weapons," Laird told a news conference, "(they) accelerate the number of warheads by three times."

This would be more than 2,100 warheads using Laird's figure of "well over 700" Soviet SS11s, or 2,400 using the figure given congressional committees, this spring of 800 Soviet SS11s as of February this year.

Her car ran off the right shoulder of the road, State Police officers said, but when she brought the vehicle back on the road, it skidded across the pavement and hit a telephone pole.

Officers said she was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law.

Goose Lake Park Closing Decision Delayed By Judge

JACKSON (AP)—A decision on whether to issue a permanent injunction closing down Goose Lake Park has been postponed until Monday, six days before another rock festival is scheduled to begin.

Jackson County Circuit Judge John Dalton Wednesday put off the decision, saying he needed time to study motions by defense attorneys who claimed there are technical flaws in the complaint.

County Prosecutor Bruce A. Barton asked the court to close the park after a controversial rock festival at the site seven miles south of Jackson Aug. 7-9 brought complaints of flagrant drug use and noise.

Barton called the park a "public nuisance" and cited open sale and use of drugs and "lewd behavior" among his reasons.

Attorneys for Goose Lake owner Richard Songer Wednesday offered a consent agreement which would permit Songer to proceed with plans for a country-western concert Sept. 18, but Barton turned it down.

"I don't care if they were having Lawrence Welk," said Chief Assistant Prosecutor Paul L. Adams later. "Those kids know they can break the law in there, and they'd be back carrying on the same way."

'New' Junior High School To Greet Area Students

"... the inside of the Junior High is a disgrace to the community" ... "the Junior High is badly in need of a face-lifting" ... "the Junior High School — what a depressing place to spend every week. Seems that a few dollars spent to brighten the halls would probably help the children's attitude" ... "Let's try spending a little money on the Junior High!" ... "I think the interior of the Junior High is a disgrace!"

Those were some of the comments of Escanaba Area School district citizens in last year's Public School Survey. The comments pointed out a project that the school administration had scheduled many times, but repeatedly postponed because of the lack of money.

This summer the "face-lifting" was done.

Halls and classrooms were re-plastered where needed. Some classrooms, all hallways and offices were painted. The library is being remodeled and enlarged to meet American School Libraries standards for a school of this size.

Coordinated and planned by Tom Smith, art instructor at the school the bright, light colors blend, complement and change from hall to hall and room to room. At each turn in the corridor, students will be greeted by different color combinations of walls and lockers. The Junior High, like the White House, may be known for its "Gold Wing," its "Blue Wing" ... and its "Green Wing."

For example, the first floor east corridor glows with antique gold lockers against off-white upper walls ... the main east-west corridor on the same floor is done in two complementary shades of soft blue. Classroom colors were planned to lighten and freshen the rooms, while adding a bonus of interesting color blends that vary from room to room. About four different color schemes were used in the classrooms.

Lesson, Music Are Published

Two Escanaba residents have combined to produce an instrumental article on dance for the Sept., 1970, issue of "Grade Teacher," an educational magazine published in Greenwich, Conn., by CCM Professional Magazines, Inc.

Jeanette LeCaptain, 2421 Lake Shore Dr., is the author of the article which features music written by David Laakso, 522 S. 7th St.

Mrs. LeCaptain operates a school of dance in Escanaba and Laakso is a music instructor in the Escanaba Area public schools.

The article, "Dance the Tarentella!" includes instructions for teachers along with descriptions of techniques involved.

"Here's a delightful rough-and-tumble dance, an exercise in listening and a chance to make a real musical instrument all rolled up into one wild lesson," the magazine headlines.

The music instrument is a tambourine fashioned from hoops cut from plastic bottles and bottle caps.

The magazine also published "a new regular feature" by Mrs. LeCaptain entitled "Rhythms" along with music by Laakso.

"This is the first in a series of developmental rhythms activities that will appear monthly for early learners," Mrs. LeCaptain wrote. "The series will provide the prekindergarten through early primary teacher with a progressively planned program of motor activities."

Final bills are not all in for the job, but it will run under the budgeted amount of $7,000, the Board said.

Other summer fix-up jobs at district schools include new sidewalks at the Washington school, a new heating system at the Administration Building, and blacktopping of a basketball court and parking lot at the Lemmer school. Painting was done at the Franklin, Lemmer, Wells and Administration buildings. Schools are painted on an alternating basis, with Ford River, Soo Hill and Wells painted last year, Cornell and Pine Ridge the year before, and city schools this year.

All schools and classrooms are cleaned and polished each summer.

GOP Lt. Governor Race All Sewed Up

ANN ARBOR (AP)—As Michigan Republicans gathered here today for the party's annual state convention, Gov. William G. Milliken's campaign headquarters declared the race already a dead issue.

The governor's political office announced Wednesday, three days before the official start of the campaign, that James H. Brumbery had been endorsed for lieutenant governor by 1,811 of the 1,877 district delegates.

Brumbery, 43, a former U. S. attorney in Detroit and two-term member of the Detroit city council, was handpicked by Milliken earlier this year.

Only Richard Durant, chairman of the party's 16th district in Wayne County, withheld assent. Milliken's office said Durant, a conservative, has made a longtime practice of opposing GOP nominees such as Milliken and former Gov. George Romney.

The major contest for position on the party's November ballot remained the office of secretary of state. Two legislators, State Sen. Emil Lockwood, former majority leader from Ann Arbor, and Rep. William Tugan, the party's lone Detroit House member, both claimed to be in control of substantially more than the 700 votes required to nominate a candidate.

While Milliken publicly has refused from endorsing other Lockwood or Tugan, both have said they expect ultimately to win the governor's support as well as a majority of the votes.

A spokesman for the Tugan camp charged Wednesday that Lockwood had "fired up" with supporters of party movement Robert J. Huber, the Troy conservative who garnered 49 percent of the vote in a surprisingly strong primary race for the U. S. Senate nomination against Mrs. Lenore Romney.

Huber, a state senator, said earlier that he would not attend the convention, although he had presented Milliken with a list of platform demands as the price of his support. He also said he was not interested in winning other party nominations.

William S. Fair, Kent County GOP leader from Grand Rapids, generally was considered certain of the nomination for attorney general, despite entry to the race of Roger G. Elderton, a 38-year-old Kalamazoo lawyer. Fair entered the race at the urging of Milliken after no others appeared eager to take on Frank J. Kelley, the three-term Democratic incumbent.

Other posts to be filled include two nominations for the State Supreme Court, State Board of Education and governing boards of the University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State Universities.

Skandia's Water Pollution Surfaces; Road Salt Blamed

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Skandia, a Swedish-owned water pollution control firm, is accused of dumping raw sewage into the Detroit River, a local newspaper says.

The Detroit Free Press reported that the firm, which has a plant in the city, has been dumping raw sewage into the river since last fall. The paper said the sewage is causing a "foul odor" and is "killing" the fish in the river.

The paper also said that the firm is blaming the pollution on the use of road salt in the winter. It said that the salt is causing the sewage to freeze and then melt, creating a "foul odor" and "killing" the fish.

Teague Ends Ties With Millionaire

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., says he has called a halt on use of his name by Dallas multimillionaire H. L. Hunt to promote a hot springs resort in West Texas.

"He did it without my permission," Teague said, "and I don't like it one bit. It's downright embarrassing. I've told him to stop it."

Teachers Reject Working Contract

MADISON (AP)—Thirty teachers in the northern Wisconsin County community have rejected a new contract offer but schools are scheduled to open Friday anyway.

The teachers' union, the United Teachers of Wisconsin, said the contract was "unacceptable" because it did not provide for a 10 percent raise and did not include provisions for health and pension benefits.

Skandia's Water Problem Surfaces; Road Salt Blamed

LANSING (AP) — Officials of the Michigan Health Department have pinpointed another source of water pollution—those big piles of salt which grow in the summer for winter use on streets and highways.

Rain hits the salt, chloride is rinsed out and carried into the ground where it can contaminate wells.

Skandia, a small town near Marquette in the Upper Peninsula, is virtually without a local water supply, officials said, since contamination from salt piles started showing up in drinking water.

"We fear that the situation there may occur elsewhere," said John E. Vogt, an engineer with the Health Department and a member of the State Water Resources Commission.

The water quality commission met last week in Houghton and decided to issue warnings to communities which stockpile salt for winter use. The commission suggested salt should be piled on asphalt pads and covered with plastic.

"We fear too," Vogt said, that the chlorides are getting into our waterways because it is often stored on riverbanks.

The Marquette County Road Commission moved a pile of salt from the general area of the home of John Heath near Skandia after he filed suit asking for damages. He attributed the damage to salt.

The road commission denied any responsibility for Heath's problems.

"About a year ago," Heath recalled, "our water began tasting real bad."

accord minus strike possible in auto talks

DETROIT (AP) — The chance for a peaceful contract settlement between the three auto-makers and the United Auto Workers Union brightened slightly Wednesday when the car manufacturers announced they would make their economic proposals next Tuesday.

In 1967, when Ford was struck for 66 days, the parties had only nine days to bargain between the companies' presentation of an offer and the time the old contract ran out.

The decision by the Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp. and General Motors Corp. to disclose their economic bargaining positions next week gives the parties almost two weeks to reach a settlement before the present contracts expire Sept. 14.

Auto industry observers have predicted that an agreement could be reached without a long work stoppage because of the nation's uncertain economy and a distinct lack of customary saber-rattling on both sides of the bargaining table this year.

UAW officials, while pleased with the companies' announcement, declined to predict a peaceful settlement.

"We'll know more about how serious they are when we see their offer," said one spokesman.

UAW vice-president Douglas Fraser said, "It is well that they are coming out early because there are many items on the table that need more time."

The companies made their announcements simultaneously and the UAW immediately sent out telegrams to the more than 400 members of the GM, Ford and Chrysler councils, summoning them to meetings next Wednesday in Detroit.

ing $200,000 for damage to his rusted out and flooded twice. We lost about $800 in clothing stored in a basement closet.

"Our water heater also leaked and I'm constantly putting in new faucets."

Vogt said problems similar to those reported in Marquette County have cropped up in Ionia and Oakland counties and possible in the Sault Ste. Marie area.

Detroit and Wayne County salt supplies are generally covered and not considered dangerous, officials said.

Teague Ends Ties With Millionaire

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., says he has called a halt on use of his name by Dallas multimillionaire H. L. Hunt to promote a hot springs resort in West Texas.

"He did it without my permission," Teague said, "and I don't like it one bit. It's downright embarrassing. I've told him to cut it out."

Television viewers in Washington this week have been exposed to spot commercials extolling the benefits of Apache Indian Springs, owned by Hunt. They were invited to telephone the resort at Teague's private number for information.

Teague is home for a visit in his district, which includes Dallas, during a three-week recess of Congress.

Apache Indian Springs is a health spa, on the Rio Grande 103 miles southeast of El Paso, which Hunt took over from a Del Rio bank and now is developing.

Boy Finds Missing 'Michigan Bear'

PERRYSBURG, Ohio (AP) — The missing 300-pound fiberglass bear, stolen last weekend from in front of a northern Michigan park, was found Tuesday in Ohio.

Kim Wolfe, 8, stumbled onto the statue in a ditch along the Ohio Turnpike near her home some eight miles south of Toledo. It was stolen last weekend from its location in front of Bear Mountain Park near Grayling.

The statue was taken to the Perryburg Township Hall until the owners arrived.

The bear disappeared Saturday, the day units of the Ohio National Guard left nearby Camp Grayling after a draining stint. Guard officials termed the disappearance of the bear on the day training ended "a coincidence."

Education Board OK's Guidelines For Sex Education

LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Education has approved a 23-page set of guidelines for sex education in Michigan's public schools.

The guidelines had been attacked and praised in a number of public hearings. The guidelines were approved on voice vote with two members—Charles E. Morton and Edwin L. Novak—absent.

Under the guidelines, details of sex education courses are in the hands of local school districts and require parental and community involvement in development of the programs.

Teacher Contract Settlement Near

Teacher contract negotiations in the Big Bay de Noc School District are close to settlement, school superintendent Frank Stupak said Wednesday.

Last year the district suffered through a 17-school day teacher strike which closed the two elementary schools at Cooks and Garden and the high school in Nahma during part of November and December. The differences were finally resolved in mid-December after seven months of contract talks.

Stupak said there were still a few minor items to be discussed by the board and teachers but said the two groups "have resolved their differences quite well."

The Big Bay Schools will open next Tuesday with about 600 students enrolled in the district's three schools. Hot lunch will be available beginning Tuesday at 20-cents per lunch or $1 per week.

Demo Leader Calls Agnew's Trip 'Political'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien has charged that Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's current mission to Asia is a politically-motivated journey.

"That trip of his, there's no rhyme or reason to it other than domestic American politics this fall," O'Brien said in an interview.

He said it is designed to enhance Agnew's standing as a Republican spokesman on foreign policy, in preparation for his campaign role.

The White House declined to comment.

Agnew arrived in South Vietnam today, midway through a four-nation mission to Asia.

As Agnew left on Aug. 22, President Nixon said he had given the vice president personal and substantive messages for each of the heads of state he would visit.

O'Brien said the administration clearly intends to make foreign policy, and Southeast Asia in particular, a major campaign point, along with the question of law and order and unrest at home.

The Democratic chairman said in his view, however, the state of the economy, inflation and unemployment will be the major issue in the campaign.

Agnew is to begin on Sept. 10 his first major campaign swing of the election season, a six-day journey to key states including California.

SAGINAW (AP) — The State Aeronautics Commission and Economic Expansion office of the Commerce Department are sponsoring a seminar on industrial aviation to be held Oct. 7 at Delta College. Clean Air Race Unit Finding Trip Tiresome

CHICAGO (AP) — College auto designers who want to show Detroit that existing technology can prevent cars from polluting the air are heading for Oklahoma City today on the fourth leg of their cross-country race.

The bulk of the 41 official and two unofficial entries in the 1970 Clean Air Car Race spent the night in Champaign, Ill., site of the University of Illinois, after a long day's drive from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Drivers and crews received the keys to the city in a municipal ceremony and, fatigued from coping with the fueling and maintenance headaches that go with their exotic vehicles, turned in early.

Officials at race headquarters in Chicago said the internal-combustion cars in the race clearly were winning the most rally points. But they said the entries running on electricity, which turned in dismal performances at first, were improving.

Of the latter, the best was a car built at the University of Toronto in which a propane engine powers a generator which in turn drives an electric motor. The Toronto entry scored 123 out of a possible 220 rally points.

The goal of the race, which started Monday at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge and ends Tuesday at California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, is not to cross the finish line first.

Rather, the goal is to pollute the air with exhaust fumes as little as possible while keeping a regular schedule.

Corn Relish Is Easy To Make

By HELOISE
 Delicious relishes are in vogue. They're so easy to put together and so good.

One of the best of these is a French Corn Relish. When we made up a batch of it, it was delicious served with roast beef, lamb or fried chicken, meat, turkey and broiled or pan-fried fish. Here's the recipe:

- French Corn Relish
- 1/2 lb. French corn
 - 1/2 cup oil
 - 1 medium-size onion, sliced and chopped
 - 1 medium-size green pepper, seeded and chopped
 - 1/2 cup chopped celery
 - 1 drained canned pineapple, chopped
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 teaspoon dry mustard
 - 1/2 cup vinegar
 - 1 cup bottled white vinegar

Cut kernels from cobs—should be about 3 cups; remove.

Put a large panpot over the corn, green pepper, celery, onion, salt, pepper, mustard, vinegar and vinegar. Heat to boiling.

Add corn; cover and simmer for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; and drain. Thoroughly covered, in refrigerator up to 2 weeks. Serve as an accompaniment for meat, poultry or fish.

Makes about 1 quart.

Notes: Drain off the corn, green pepper, celery and the vinegar.

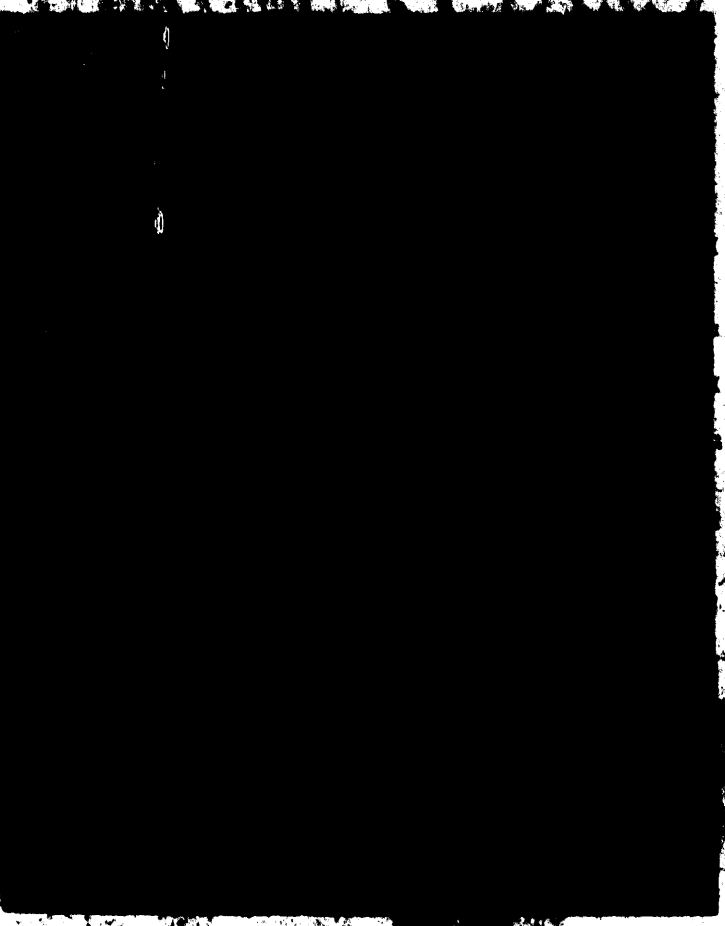

When you serve, add a dash of salt and pepper. Cut the kernels from the corn, then turn them in one of these ways:

1. Make up a green cabbage slaw, using cooked dressing.

 Dear Heloise: I found a dreamy way to dress up my bed!

I took a half slip that was too long (it was a present) and took the elastic out of the waist—turned it inside out and sewed up the end where the elastic was.

Then I turned it right side out and behold a beautiful luxurious inexpensive nylon pillow case. Most half slips have gorgeous lace at the hem and the prettier the better!

My husband tried mine and insisted that he have one too, so I made a pair. After all, those gift slips weren't serving any purpose just stuffed away in a drawer waiting for the drop in hem lines.

The second knife can be kept hot by plunging it into very hot water when it begins to cool off.

Corn Relish Is Easy To Make

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

Refrigerator relishes are in vogue. They're so easy to put together and store.

One of the best of these is a Fresh Corn Relish. When we made up a batch of it in our test kitchen, we found it was delightful served with roast meat, roast or fried chicken, roast turkey and broiled or pan-fried fish. Here's the recipe:

Fresh Corn Relish
6 to 8 medium ears
fresh corn
1 medium-size onion,
peeled and chopped
1 medium-size green pepper, seeded and chopped
1/2 cup chopped celery
2 drained canned pimientos,
chopped
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons dry mustard
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup distilled white vinegar
Cut kernels from corn—there should be about 3 cups; reserve.

Into a large saucepot turn the onion, green pepper, celery, pimientos, salt, pepper, mustard, sugar and vinegar. Heat to boiling.

Add corn; cover and simmer for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; cool.

Store, tightly covered, in refrigerator up to 2 weeks. Serve as an accompaniment for meat, poultry or fish.

Makes about 1 quart.
Note: Knife-chop the onion, green pepper, celery and the pimiento.

KITCHEN NOTES

Here are some suggestions for using leftover cooked corn. Cut the kernels from the ears, then team them in one of these ways:

1. Make up a green cabbage slaw, using cooked dressing, mayonnaise or French dressing. Add cooked corn kernels.

2. Add cooked corn kernels to the egg mixture when you are preparing scrambled eggs.

3. An old-fashioned vegetable soup made with a cream-sauce base and diced carrot, onion, celery and green beans can also have an addition of cooked corn kernels. Add the corn after the soup is made and reheat.

Dear Heloise: When I travel during the summer vacation, I collect maps, pamphlets of places we visit, and small souvenirs.

On the maps, I mark the route we traveled and the places we visited.

When we get home, I put all of these mementos in a small box and label (such as: Washington, D. C. 8/5/69).

I have quite a collection, and when I'm sick, or on rainy days, I pick a box and relive the trip. It is so much fun and passes the time very pleasantly and quickly.

Mary Ellen Frank

Dear Heloise:

When I give myself a color rinse I detest the time I have to wait unable to read or do anything while it "takes."

So I now keep the plastic gloves supplied by the color rinse people and I cut the fingers off and save them.

On my next color job I'm all set, as I can slip the plastic glove fingers over the ear pieces of my eye glasses.

It will keep the "gook" off the part of the glasses that tucks into my hair over the ears.

Gypsy

Dear Heloise:

My husband bought himself an inexpensive plastic twist-out ice cube tray to use as a palette. It's lightweight and has several spaces for different colors.

He made a cardboard cover to lay over it so he can put his brushes on top without getting paint on the handles.

It's really ideal... and easy enough to clean out one section with a rag and brush if necessary, but usually he just adds light or dark colors to make a different shade.

Here's Howes

by Don Howes

In the past I have mentioned about the fine cooperation of the pit crews, the drivers and others that have helped make the races as successful as they have been this year but what about the loyal fans? After last weekend's action, especially last Saturday night, the only way that I can describe the fans is by the word loyal. With nearly 4,500 fans in the stands last Saturday night the weatherman dropped the bucket. Three hours later at 10:30 the first heat started with the last race completed around 12:30 and still there were nearly 4,500 fans left. A true example of loyal stock car fans. So far this season over 40,000 fans have attended the races.

Two nights of racing action during the Upper Peninsula State Fair saw very little change in the point standings at the Escanaba Speedway, with Canadian So driver Ed Fowley continuing to lead the modified point standings, and Wmnel Tourangeau continues to lead the sportsman standings. The standings as of today are as follows:

Modified	Sportsman
1. Ed Fowley 4870	1. Wmnel Tourangeau 3970
2. Bob Iverson 4680	2. Pat Temple 3605
3. Jerry Richer 4680	3. Bill Peterson 3530
4. Gene Coleman 3945	4. Larry Duford 3500
5. Jim Barren 3815	5. Dick Peterson 3500
6. Allen Yelle 3735	6. Joe Haforken 3500
7. Herb Iverson 3345	7. Ron Fagotto 3435
8. Ray Gardner 3215	8. Mike Hubbell 3375
9. Joe Wurth 3210	9. Ken Vin 3215
10. Dave Bolles 3185	10. Jim Hansen 1600

Racing action this Saturday night in Escanaba will include two attractions. Representative Charles Varnum will drive a modified race car and will be matched in a special race with last year's number one sportsman driver Dick Peterson of Rapid River. This Saturday night has also been designated camera night, and fans will be given an opportunity after time trials to go out on the track and take pictures of their favorite drivers.

The biggest jump in the point standings from last week was made by Herb Iverson of Ryde who climbed from 10th to 6th in the standings. Young Iverson who drives in the modified class in car No. 65, which is a Turquoise and white Corvair with a 287 Chevrolet engine picked up a total of 615 points.

Herb Iverson makes his move.

Wolverines Report Early Grid Injuries

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Junior and Mike Oldham is the first casualty of Michigan's two-day-old fall football training camp, coach Bo Schembechler reported Wednesday.

Oldham injured his shoulder Tuesday and missed Wednesday's drills, but a team spokesman described the injury as "minor."

Receiver Billy Harris, leading candidate for the Wolverines starting split end spot, has only been participating in one of the teams two daily drills. Harris is still recovering from a knee injury suffered in the Rose Bowl game.

The Wolverines are scheduled to go through their first pad-on contact drill Friday.

Former Michigan State football All-American and Gene Washington averaged 18.2 yards per pass reception in his Spartan career — an all-time NCAA record.

Pickup Dragster Visits Escanaba

By DON HOWES

Dick Harding of Escanaba, Calif., two time Olympic Champion Backup Pickup Dragster, visiting with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McKnight of 311 N. 10th St. Wednesday put on a spectacular show for the neighbors and viewers along 10th St.

In trying to describe what happened, what would you think if you were driving down the street and saw a pickup coming full blast down the street backwards with the back wheels 10 feet up in the air?

Yes, I was amazed and so was the small crowd watching the show including Jim Fier, the MC at the Escanaba Speedway.

Harding who does this amazing sport professionally is on his way to Winnipeg Canada today to put on a show and will be returning to Milwaukee at Union Grove next weekend for another demonstration.

Harding, who is originally from Red Axe, Michigan bought the pickup brand new and modified the entire contents of the truck completely around. The motor is in the back of the truck which runs 500 horse power and Ford Superduty motor which cost about $4,000.

The front wheels are in the back of the truck and naturally the back ones are in the front. The steering wheel and seat has been switched from the driver's side to the passenger side and is also backwards for Dick can drive the vehicle looking out of the back window.

Harding also reported that at times he has driven backwards up to speeds of 120 miles per hour. He says it's just like taking a Sunday drive but I like my small car for my Sundays. All and all it was quite a show and it's too bad that Dick never had more time because there would have been quite a few racing fans interested in viewing this show.

Bowling

There will be a meeting of the Holiday - Thursday 9 P.M. Bowling League on Thursday, Sept. 3, at 7:30 P.M. The meeting will be held at the Holiday Bowl. Any interested women bowlers are asked to please attend. New teams are also welcome.

CRUADERS PREPARE FOR OFFENSE

The Holy Name Crusaders are preparing twice a day drills in preparation for the 1970 season opener next Friday night in a home stand against conference rival Iron Mountain. Here, in the above picture, the offensive runs through a few plays that will hopefully confuse the defense. (Daily Press Photo)

UP UP AND AWAY — This best describes the show that Dick Harding Professional Backup Pickup Dragster put on yesterday on N. 10th Street. Harding has made runs with his pickup on two wheels for a 1/4 mile at speeds up to 120 miles per hour on the street.

Horseshoe Finals Slated For Sunday

The Escanaba Horseshoe League Tournament advanced to the final round Wednesday night with the Daily Press team eliminating the Brewster Bar 13-4 while the Iron Mountain Longhorns 14-4 in the other semi-final game.

The two winners from last night's matches will now meet

Sunday at the Royal Park Court for the tournament championship. The event is scheduled to start at noon.

After the tournament final, a league picnic will be held at the Pioneer Trail Park on the south side starting at 5 p.m. All members who have pitched at least one game and their families are invited. Trophies will be presented at the picnic.

Right-handed pitcher Norm McRae joined the team Wednesday from Toledo as a replacement for rookie Larry LeGrove who has left the team for military duty at Fort Jackson, S.C. McRae, who was with Detroit earlier this season, had a 4-1 record for the Mud Hens and a 6.30 earned-run average.

Kevia Collins was Mayo's choice to play third base in tonight's exhibition against Toledo so Don Wert got right Smith also said he would join Al Kaline and Dick McAuliffe after a couple innings.

Smith's score threat is "still a little scratchy but better than it was."

Smith expects to bring up "three or four" players from Toledo after Sept. 1, the date when they expect their contract from 25 to 40 players. He said they wouldn't be limited to pitchers.

Hurler Shelled Again

McLain Not Candidate For 'Comeback' Award

DETROIT (AP) — California manager Lefty Phillips is plugging for pitcher Clyde Wright to be named Comeback Player of the Year.

Meanwhile, it seems more evident that Denny McLain's comeback will have to wait until next season.

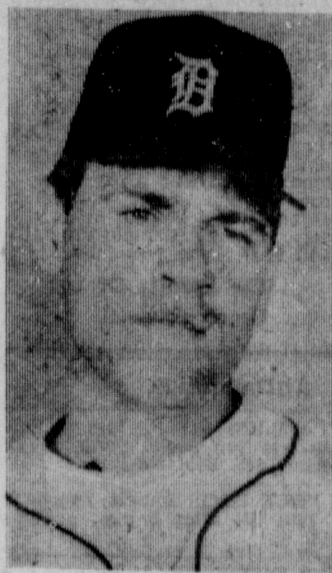

Wright, who languished with a 1-8 record as a reliever last year, upped his record to 18-9 Wednesday night by pitching the Angels to a 6-3 victory over McLain and the beleaguered Detroit Tigers.

Angels Remain 3½ Back
The triumph kept second-place California within 3½ games of Minnesota in the American League West, while the third-place Tigers fell the furthest distance of the season behind front-running Baltimore in the East—14½ games.

Detroit was scheduled to meet its Toledo farm club tonight in an exhibition away game with Bob Reed, Norm McRae and Fred Scherman expected to share the pitching. The Tigers open a three-game home series against Oakland Friday night.

California opens a four-game stand in Cleveland Friday. "He's as good a choice as any for comeback of the year," Phillips said of Wright, who allowed just three singles until an error filled, three-run Tiger ninth.

Wright had never opposed McLain and the challenge proved something mysteriously effective for the 27-year-old Angel southpaw.

Denny McLain

"It was the first time I never faced Denny and it just did something to me," he said in the California clubhouse. "To beat McLain."

Denny's last outing was his first complete game but this time around he fell victim again to the gopher ball, giving up a solo homer to Roger Repoz and a two-run blast to Ken McMullen. That gave McLain 19 home run pitches in 14 starts, far ahead of his 1966 pace in which he gave up 42 for the American League lead and a club record.

Control Not Good
"His control is still not good," said Tiger manager Mayo Smith. "Control is the reason for the gophers. Control, control, control."

McLain only walked two batters but he didn't seem to be getting his strikes where he wanted them. Repoz' homer, his 17th, came in the third after the Angels already had a 1-0 lead from the first on a Repoz single, a hit batsman, and a single by Jim Spencer.

McLain loaded the bases in the fourth on a single by Spencer and walks to McMullen and Joe Azcue. Then Sandy Alomar lashed a two-run single to put California ahead 4-0.

McMullen's homer, his 13th, came in the eighth after a single by Alex Johnson. Tiger reliever John Hiller retired the side in the ninth.

"All I can say on McLain is that if you can come in and pitch right away in games as your way of warming up, and if it works out," Phillips said, "then it means everyone's wasting a lot of money on spring training."

He referred to McLain's return to the mound July 1 after three months suspension and no spring training under his belt. Detroit sent Wright to the showers in the ninth. Stanley started it all by reaching second as his fly ball popped out of Johnson's glove at the leftfield wall.

McAuliffe sent a dribbler that second baseman Alomar tried to grab one-handed. It went past him for a double, then shortstop Jim Fregosi threw wild to third and McAuliffe reached there.

Al Kalline followed with his 15th homer, bringing in Ken Tatum who got the final three outs.

Dartball League To Begin Sept. 14

The Escanaba Tavern Dartball League held its organizational meeting Tuesday night at the Colonial Hotel with eight teams being represented. The teams in the league for this year are Dubord's, Lark's, Little Mike's, the Metropolitan Hotel, Bay de Noc, The Palm, Colonial Hotel and the West Side Tavern.

League play is schedule to start on Monday Sept. 14 and there is still a need for more players. Anyone interested, either in or outside of Escanaba, who would like to join the league can contact the league secretary Don Martineau for further information.

Kansas State will play six of its 11 football games on the road this season.

Cowboys Acquire Former Lion Star

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys announced Wednesday they acquired former Detroit Lion safety Bobby Thompson from the New Orleans Saints.

Thompson was a strongside safety for the Saints last season, starting the first seven NFL games before an Achilles tendon injury sidelined him.

Jim Merritt First 20 Game Winner In National League

By The Associated Press

Jim Merritt must have known something. Why else would the slick Cincinnati southpaw stash away nearly a case of champagne in his locker ... before the game?

"You don't win 20 games every day," said the 26-year-old hurler, referring to the 10 bottles of champagne, after he became the first left-hander in 45 years to win 20 for the Reds.

Merritt didn't last all the way, going 6 2-3 innings before Wayne Granger came on to save the memorable victory as the Reds edged Philadelphia 6-5 Wednesday night.

"It was a nice win," said the slender Merritt. "I would have liked to have gone all the way but I got tired. Wayne came on through and slammed the door for me." It was Granger's 29th save for the year.

First 20-Game Winner

Merritt, who has lost 10 decisions, became the National League's first 20-game winner this season although he gave up 15 hits before Granger bailed him out. Dave McNally of Baltimore has 20 victories in the American League. The last Cincinnati lefty to win 20 was Eppa Rixey, who was 21-11 in 1925.

In other NL action, Atlanta dropped New York 9-7, San Diego edged Pittsburgh 2-1, Los Angeles beat Chicago 8-5, Houston topped Montreal 5-4 and San Francisco edged St. Louis 8-7.

Merritt, 17-9 last year after being obtained during the winter of 1969 from Minnesota for Leo Cardenas, was given a 6-2 edge before the Phils unloaded for three runs in the seventh, knocking the lefty out.

Reds Have Great Bull Pen

"You don't worry though," said Merritt. "It's nice to know you've got a great bullpen. They've done a fine job."

Tony Perez slammed his 39th homer of the year and Bernie Carbo had a three-run shot for the Reds, his 21st. Don Money cracked a two-run homer for the Phils.

Hank Aaron slammed his 35th homer of the year, triggering a three-run Atlanta ninth inning that overcame a 7-6 Mets lead. Aaron's two-run shot and No. 589 of his career capped an uphill battle by the Braves.

Orlando Cepeda, Clete Boyer and Bob Tillman added homers for Atlanta while Art Shamsky and Wayne Garrett had two-run blasts for New York.

Pirates Beaten Again

Ed Spiezio drilled a two-run homer in the seventh inning, sending the Padres to their second straight victory over the Pirates. Despite the loss Pittsburgh still remains three games in front of the Mets in the East.

Freddie Patek fumbled Ivan Murrell's leadoff bouncer before Spiezio connected for his 10th homer of the year off rookie right-hander Fred Cambria, spoiling his major league debut.

Pat Dobson, 10-13, allowed 12 hits but the Pirates scored only in the sixth on John Jeter's single, stolen base and Roberto Clemente's run-scoring single.

Jim Lefebvre clouted a three-run homer and Claude Osteen captured his 14th victory with relief help from Jim Brewer as the Dodgers stopped the Cubs, who trail the Pirates by 4½ games. John Callison had a two-run homer for Chicago.

Denis Menke drilled a three-run homer in the ninth inning, helping the Astros to their triumph. Cesar Cedeno added a homer in the ninth for Houston. Jim Gosger had put Montreal ahead 3-1 in the eighth with a three-run shot.

Jim Ray Hart greeted reliever Frank Linzy with a run-scoring single that gave the Giants their victory over the Cards. Lou Brock, who stole three bases, slugged a homer for the Cards while Willie Mays had a two-run shot and Willie McCovey ripped his 33rd of the year.

Michigan, 24-12 upset victor over Ohio State last fall, will meet the Buckeyes in Columbus, Ohio Nov. 21, the last week of Big Ten football activity.

Bill Freehan's Book Still Haunting Denny

DETROIT (AP) — Denny McLain apparently finds it difficult to cope with defeat.

That became quite evident Wednesday night after the Detroit Tiger pitcher suffered his fifth loss in eight decisions as the California Angels beat him 6-3.

It is no secret that McLain hasn't been on the best of terms with Catcher Bill Freehan since Freehan's book "Behind the Mask" made public criticisms of Tiger management's handling of the often cocky pitcher.

But all the controversy that surrounded the book seemed to be hashed over while McLain was under three-month suspension. However, it seems now it's really not water over the dam.

"How do you feel you were pitching? Did you tire early?" McLain was casually asked by a reporter as he walked from the Tiger clubhouse.

"Don't ask me. Go ask my catcher Bill Freehan. He's the one who wrote the damn book," he snapped back. "Go listen to what he says, not to what I say, and then write anything you want," he added bitterly. "That's what you guys do anyway."

Freehan has consistently refused to get into a running criticism and considers the incident a closed book.

It's quite possible McLain isn't actually newly upset at Freehan but that the loss served to bring the skeleton back out of the closet for a moment.

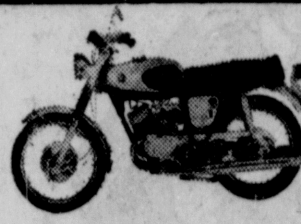

The 26-year-old righthanded pitcher gave up two homers in eight innings of Wednesday's loss, bringing to 19 the number of gopher balls McLain has given up in 14 starts. That is far ahead of his 1966 pace in which he set a club record by giving up 42 home runs to top the American League.

McLain was suspended April 1 through June 30 by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn for his association with gamblers in 1967.

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions, suffering from a lack of healthy pass receivers — announced Wednesday they have traded rookie guard Bob Parker to the Philadelphia Eagles for a four-year veteran receiver, Chuck Hughes.

Hughes, a fourth round draft choice of the Eagles in 1967, is six feet tall and weighs 180. Parker, the Lions fifth round draft choice this year, is 6-foot-3 and weighs 235 pounds.

Hughes, 25, and Parker, 23, will meet Monday night in their new roles when Philadelphia comes to Detroit for a National Football League exhibition game.

The Lions sought an additional receiver when three of their top pass catchers were sidelined this fall with injuries. John Wright is not expected back this year. Earl McCulloch is expected back in about a month and Bill Malarkey is about a week, a Lions spokesman said.

Buford Homers; Birds Win Again

By The Associated Press

Tangling with Don Buford at 6-foot-six inches isn't Jim Hunter's idea of nocturnal bliss—especially on an August night in Baltimore.

Buford cuffed Hunter for a two-run homer Wednesday night, propelling the Orioles to a 5-1 victory over the fading Oakland A's.

It was the Baltimore mini-sluggers' 13th base hit in 21 at-bats against the Catfish over the past two years. And it was the Oakland right-hander's ninth loss in as many August decisions in those two seasons.

Another Bomb Scare

Elsewhere, a bomb scare in Cleveland failed to rattle Steve Hargan, who pitched the Indians to a 7-2 victory over Milwaukee; Minnesota blanked Boston 7-0 on rookie Bert Blyleven's four-hitter; The New York Yankees topped Kansas City 3-0 behind Stan Bahnsen; California beat Detroit 6-3 and the Chicago White Sox downed Washington 3-1.

Buford's 14th homer of the season, a third-inning shot over the right center field fence, gave Jim Palmer all the impetus he needed to gain his 18th victory. Buford also singled off reliever Bob Locker in the seventh and boosted his season batting average to .275. His two-year mark against Hunter is .619.

Red Sox Tamed

Blyleven hurled the Twins out of a three-game tailspin by taming the Red Sox for his first major league shutout, Cesar Tovar drove in three runs with a single and double off Ray Culp, as the Twins protected their 3½-game West Division lead over second-place California.

Bahnsen stopped Kansas City on five hits and the Yankees jumped on Wally Bunker for three first inning runs to hand the winless right-hander his eighth loss.

Syd O'Brien and Carlos May hit home runs for the White Sox and winning pitcher Jerry Janeschki shut out the Senators until Aurelio Rodriguez homered in the seventh.

Orlones Hot

Palmer, who has lost seven, scattered six hits, including a homer by Felipe Alou in the fourth, as the Orioles breezed to their ninth win in 10 games.

Hunter, 15-12, has lost four in a row while the A's have dropped five straight and nine of their last 10 starts.

Home runs by Ted Uhlaender and rookie Roy Foster broke up a close game at Cleveland and gave Hargan his sixth straight victory since being recalled.

Lions, Eagles Make Grid Deal

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions—suffering from a lack of healthy pass receivers—announced Wednesday they have traded rookie guard Bob Parker to the Philadelphia Eagles for four-year veteran receiver Chuck Hughes.

Hughes, a fourth round draft choice of the Eagles in 1967, is six feet tall and weighs 180. Parker, the Lions fifth round draft choice this year, is 6-foot-2 and weighs 225 pounds.

Hughes, 26, and Parker, 23, will meet Monday night in their new roles when Philadelphia comes to Detroit for a National Football League exhibition game.

The Lions sought an additional receiver when three of their top pass catchers were sidelined this fall with injuries. John Wright is not expected back this year. Earl McCullouch is expected back in about a month and Bill Malinchak in about a week, a Lions spokesman said.

'Futurology' May Have Solved Today's Problems

By JACK SHIRAS
 NEW YORK (AP) — To the study of "futures," and the most futuristic of all, futurology, comes into vogue among decision makers in business and government, it simply isn't the study of the future. The issue practitioners it is to be more than planning for tomorrow may bring. For the future is becoming a reality, and it is not a distant, abstract concept. It is the study of the future, and it is preparing for them.

Today's futurists are not only looking at the future, they are also looking at the past. They are looking at the trends that have shaped the world we live in today, and they are looking at the trends that will shape the world we live in tomorrow. They are looking at the trends that will shape the world we live in the year 2000.

Conducted two years ago, the study was published in the form of a book, "The Year 2000: A Guide to the Future." It was a study of the trends that will shape the world we live in the year 2000. It was a study of the trends that will shape the world we live in the year 2000.

Capital Complex Needs To Train

WASHINGTON (AP) — This year's graduates of the Civil Service Training Center for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) will be trained to handle the capital complex. The FBI is training its agents to handle the capital complex, which is the most important and most difficult of all the FBI's responsibilities.

'Flying Bottles' May Be Grounded

WASHINGTON (AP) — A few extra drops of liquor for two cents less and no more glass bottles to worry about.

These are advantages of a new aluminum foil packet of liquor designed to replace conventional miniature bottles used aboard airlines. But some airlines aren't buying.

"We have the feeling that probably this has come along too soon," said Martin Little of American Airlines. "We probably will offer use of it until later," he said, following six weeks of testing.

Pan American World Airways also tested the foil packet and found it to be a good idea. But Pan Am is sticking with bottles.

"If they come through with something that won't crush, that can be stored and won't crumble and break, we might try it again," a spokesman said.

On the other hand, Braniff International Airways reported a generally good passenger reaction to test servings of the packets which come in scotch, bourbon, gin, vodka and four cocktails.

Injuries Fatal

ADDISON (AP) — Ronald Turri, 28, of Fremont, Pa. died Wednesday of injuries suffered Tuesday when his car ran off Devil's Lake Highway north of Addison in Lenape County and smashed into a tree. Turri died at the University of Michigan hospital in Ann Arbor.

'Futurology' May Have Solved Today's Problems

By JACK SHOLL

NEW YORK (AP) — To the growing list of "ologies," add this one: futurology.

An imprecise science that has increasingly come into vogue among decision makers in business and government, it simply refers to the study of the future.

For some practitioners it is little more than phantasmagoria of what tomorrow may bring. For others, it's become a sophisticated method of determining what the problems of the future may be and preparing for them today.

"Many of today's acute problems—among them, core city deterioration, transportation overload, and air and water pollution—might have been fore-

Capitol Complex Guards To Train

EAST LANSING (AP) — Thirty-seven candidates for the Civil Service Civilian Guard jobs in the Lansing Capitol Complex Security unit are to begin a 144-hour training program at Michigan State Police Headquarters Monday. Graduation for the group is slated for Sept. 24, and the guards are expected to be on duty beginning Sept. 26. Sgt. William H. Carter, 45, former supervisor of the State Police Underwater Recovery and Water Safety unit, will be in charge of the Capitol Complex unit, which also is to include five corporals and 15 troopers.

stalled if better forecasts had been devised 20 to 30 years ago," states a futuristic study just published by the National Industrial Conference Board, an independent business research organization.

The study, or experimental forecast, is based on the responses of 66 leaders in business, government, labor and education who were asked to identify emerging trends which would almost certainly create public problems in the 1970s and 1980s.

Conducted two years ago, the board says publication of the study now was urged by a number of "important institutions and individuals" who had learned of its existence. Among those participating in the forecast were General Motors Corp. Chairman James M. Roche, American Telephone & Telegraph Co. Chairman H. I. Romnes, and Westinghouse Electric Chairman Donald Burnham.

Basically, the forecast found that the United States is moving through what it called a period of unusual political-economic "power activity."

"New patterns of power are in the making; the ultimate design is not clear. Traditional powers are breaking out of confining channels, regulations and controls and are shifting..." the study found.

"For example," it says, "manufacturing in yielding important political-economic powers to service industries; smaller and medium-sized businesses, to conglomerates; cities and states, to the federal establishment; the legislative branch, to the executive branch; the influence of teachers and politicians, to mass media; adults over 40, to those in their 30s and younger; generalists, to specialists; men, to machines."

Heading a list of 20 major areas of future concern outlined by the panel was "divisions in society." It said these included divisions between rich and poor, young and old, black and white, and those who understand the language of technology and science and those who don't.

NOTICE TO ALL SUPPLIERS

We are happy to announce that the construction of Four Seasons Nursing Center, Inc. of Escanaba, Michigan, has now been confirmed and we are planning for a completion date of September 15, 1970 or before.

We want to inform all suppliers that beginning October 1, 1970 all checks for accounts payable will be issued from this Center. We will have a cut-off date on the 25th of each month and we must receive all invoices and statements by the second day of the following month in order to make payment by the tenth.

All invoices for August should be received by September 2nd and these will be submitted for payment through the Central Office.

The need for this Center has been much in evidence in the Upper Peninsula and we are looking forward to serving this community and the surrounding area with top quality Nursing Care.

I want to thank everyone for their cooperation and their patience and assure you that we will do everything possible to make this center successful in the future.
